Director To Be Hired

Thompson Park Recreation Setup Will Be Expanded

Details of an expanded program for Thompson Park were worked out Thursday night by the Council finance committee and the Board of Park Commissioners, including hiring of a full-time summer athletic and recreation director, construction of eight to ten horseshoe courts and addition of a third tennis court.

Although the park's overall appropriation for 1961 will be up only about $600 from 1960, the way in which the funds will be allocated will permit the expanded program, Councilman John Melvin, finance committee chairman, explained.

FOR INSTANCE, $2,500 will be set up for incidental expenses this year, which should provide funds for material to construct the horseshoe and tennis courts, he said.

The appropriation for incidentals in 1960 was $1,200. The park was given $2,000 for road improvements and construction of a parking lot in 1960, but funds for similar work in 1961 will be cut to about $1,000.

Other plans for 1961 call for addition of a cinder track for track events and renovation of a baseball diamond on the park property fronting on Anderson Blvd. below the swimming pool.

The city will provide $600 toward the salary of the athletic and recreation director and the park board said it hopes to raise another $600 via contributions from local civic organizations.

THE MEETING at City Hall brought together Councilmen John Melvin, Donald Smith and John Kelly, members of the finance committee, Councilman Donald Hancock and Judge Louis Tobin, W. Leland Thompson and Louis Yanni, members of the park board.

In setting up funds for the activities Council is following through on a pledge made in the fall of 1960 to establish a citywide recreation program out of part of the funds from income tax revenue.

Melvin said the park board indicated a high school coach probably will be engaged for the summer-time job of athletic and recreation director. The need for an athletic director was pointed out last year when a tennis tournament was held on the park's new courts without adequate supervision, he added.

"WE FEEL that more organized athletic and recreation activity at the park will attract more people to the spot," Melvin said.

Burgess Hits At Critics Of Midland Tax

Corak Tells Council Borough Ready To Fight Test In Court

Burgess Eli Corak lashed out at critics of Midland's new occupation tax Thursday night, declaring at Borough Council meeting the $10 annual levy on all who work in Midland, "not entirely taxation without representation."

He defended the new revenue source "to help pay for the privileges and services for all who work in Midland," pointed out the Crucible Steel Co. has not protested the tax and warned the borough is prepared to fight a any court test of the levy, which applies to all — residents and non-residents — employed within the borough limits.

A group of over 100 persons launched a movement to fight the tax, which will be collected starting June 1.

He said the tax would never have been imposed "if in our own minds it was unfair or illegal." Those employed here are "under the protection of services of the borough, if they need them."

He pointed out that those who do not live in East Liverpool, but work there, must pay a wage tax and they have no representation by vote. He said an income tax is more expensive than an occupation tax.

He said that taxes are distributed to others to help raise their standards of living and pointed out in a new contract with the borough workers, the borough absorbed the increased cost of insurance.

"The borough must be doing right for if it were wrong, Crucible would immediately take off its machinery tax completely," he contended.

Corak said Crucible pays to two taxing bodies, the borough and the school district. Both bodies are co-operating with each other in order to spread taxes equitably.

He said that if the tax goes into litigation, the borough solicitor, Atty. Robert Masters, is well prepared. He believes that under

Kennedy Urges Mr. K's Co-Operation On Laos

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy has strongly urged Soviet Premier Khrushchev to co-operate with the United States in making war-torn Laos a completely neutral nation, lest the conflict there explode into a much greater East-West clash.

Specifically, Kennedy wants Khrushchev to choke off the presently heavy flow of Soviet arms to the pro-Communist rebels in northern and eastern Laos before the United States decides it is compelled to launch a counter-buildup of forces under the pro-Western government of Premier Boun Oum.

Final Action Set Today On Liquor Issue

West Virginia Vote Looms In 1962 On By-The-Drink Plan

CHARLESTON, W. Va. A liquor-by-the-drink amendment isn't on the state's 1962 election ballot yet. But in the Senate today was a bill, already passed by the House, to put it there.

With its galleries only sparsely populated, the Senate required about a minute late Thursday to decide that, for the first time in 50 years, West Virginians shall decide whether they want liquor served for public consumption.

The House, which twice before had failed to muster the required two-thirds majority on a Senate-passed resolution to submit such an amendment, finally managed the necessary 67 votes on its own measure earlier in the week.

That resolution came to the Senate, which had passed its own on Feb. 17 by two votes more than the two-thirds majority required, 24-8. At that time, there was lengthy debate and vote-explaining.

But when almost the same resolution from the House reached passage stage at 4 p.m. yesterday, the uneducated might have thought it was the most routine type of local bill.

There was no debate, and no one arose to explain his vote. Clerk J. Howard Myers quickly called the roll, and the result was exactly the same as on Feb. 17, with every senator voting the same way as then.

But one final step remains before the amendment actually goes on the 1962 ballot. The legislature also must enact finally an enabling bill to assure that. Actually, such a bill could be passed during the 30-day session next year.

But supporters of the amendment in the House took no chances. They had introduced, on the last day it could be offered this session, the necessary enabling legislation.

That was after the earlier House failures on the Senate-passed resolution, and with the matter apparently dead for this year — although the House resolution was out of committee and lying on the inactive calendar.

Immediately after yesterday's Senate action, the House proponents engineered a Temperance Committee meeting and wheeled that bill to the floor. Then they managed to obtain a suspension of House rules requiring a bill to be read on three separate days.

Passage of the bill followed, and it went to the Senate. Supporters of the amendment there were confident they could gain a rule suspension, too, if they need it.

50 Flee Fire, 4 Hurt

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Fire roared through a four-story brick tenement building in the city's Hill District early today and forced about 50 residents to flee in sub-zero weather. At least four persons were injured, none seriously.

Housing Bill Legislation Seen By May

Democrats Declare It Won't Be Easy; Changes Expected

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats in Congress talked today of enacting President Kennedy's $3.25 billion housing program by May—but acknowledged it would not be easy.

Even before the President sent up the actual legislation to be considered, there were signs that Congress might make changes in his proposals, now heavily weighted toward halting decay in cities and easing the housing problems of lower-income families.

The two Alabama Democrats who head the housing subcommittees of the Senate and House, Sen. John J. Sparkman and Rep. Albert Rains, got together on a tentative schedule that calls for the Senate to move first. Democrats count on easier going in the Senate than in the House, where Republicans picked up a net of 22 seats in last year's election.

Rains said the GOP gains "inevitably make it a nip and tuck battle on the House floor."

Senate hearings are expected to start late this month, making a vote possible before the end of April. The House then might act by late May.

Some congressional sources said they expect strong pressure from the building industry for changes in the bill that would help sell houses perhaps up to the $25,000 class. These might include lower down payment requirements.

Under the Kennedy proposals, the mortgage financing liberalization would be slanted particularly at houses costing $13,500 or less. The President also proposed a go-ahead for construction of 100,000 public housing units. Republicans usually oppose large public housing programs.

Weirton Raids Net 6 'Slots'

3 Persons Arrested In Tavern Cleanup

WEIRTON — Police confiscated six slot machines and arrested three persons in another series of raids on city taverns early today.

The "one-armed bandits" were seized at the SAC Club on Main St., where William A. Gersco, 48, of Weirton, the bartender, was arrested on three different charges.

Police said the machines included two of the nickle type, three 10-centers and a quarter-slot machine.

Gersco was arrested at 2:45 a. m. and charged with exhibiting gaming devices, being open after hours and illegal possession of whiskey.

He posted $318 bond for a hearing Monday in Municipal Court. Police also cited Dominic Orlando, operator of the YDC Club on Main St., at 2:50 a. m. for operating and dispensing beer without a license and illegal possession of whiskey. Orlando forfeited $212 bond when he failed to appear for a hearing this morning before Judge Norman J. Ferrari Jr.

Patsy Pete, 35, of Weirton, was arrested at 3:30 a. m. in the Savoy Club on Main St., and charged with participating in a card game. He forfeited $106 bond.

Navy Bomber Crashes In Lake, All 8 Lost

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—A Navy bomber which crashed Thursday night in choppy Lake George was found by rescue teams today.

Cmdr. C. H. Boldt, directing the Navy search operations, said there was no trace of the eight crewmen reported aboard the craft.

The plane was found in 10 to 15 feet of water in the Lake George practice bombing range about 65 miles south of Jacksonville.

ONLY A DAY AGO this sign, located in a Schneckstad (N.Y.) park, was protecting the interest of tender young shoots of green grass. After Thursday's 11-inch snow fall, the sign fails to keep snow-loving kids off the grass. (UPI Telephoto)

Woman, Child Hurt In Icy Road Crashes

City Wife Injured As Trailer Jack-Knives Into Path Of Auto

Ice-slicked roads were blamed for two traffic mishaps Thursday afternoon which hospitalized a city area woman and injured a North Lima child.

Mrs. Mary A. Pethel, 24, of R. D. 2 is in "fair" condition today at City Hospital with injuries received when an oncoming truck trailer jack-knifed and struck the front of her station wagon on Route 7 just north of the intersection with Route 30 at 5:10 p. m.

Mrs. Pethel, wife of Dewey Pethel, suffered a possible fractured skull, lacerations and possible fracture of the left knee and rib injuries.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Mrs. Pethel was driving north when the approaching rig, driven by Arthur Henderman, 34, of Marietta, began to slow for the intersection ahead.

The trailer skidded on the icy roadway, and slammed against the station wagon, demolishing the front of the vehicle and causing some $600 damage to the trailer.

Mrs. Pethel was en route to her home, on Route 7 near Beaver Local High School, after visiting a physician here, the family said. The patrol still is investigating.

A car driven by Mrs. Billie Sue Spicer, 24, of North Lima skidded on ice on Route 14 a mile east of Salem and went into a ditch after knocking down two newspaper delivery tubes.

Darlene Spicer, 3, daughter of the driver, was treated at Salem City Hospital for lacerations of the scalp.

Icy Pavement Blamed In City's Lone Mishap

Ice-slicked streets were blamed for the lone East Liverpool traffic mishap Thursday night, police reported.

A 1957 two-door sedan driven by Carl M. Ludwig, 50, of 839 Chester Ave. skidded about 10:45 last night at Avondale and Bank Sts., striking a parked 1955 convertible owned by Robert Ward, 1008 Huston Ave., officers said.

Ludwig said he halted on Bank St. for a motorist headed south on Avondale St. When he put his car in motion again, it skidded on the slippery pavement and hit the parked auto, he said. There was damage to a taillight and fender of the Ludwig car and the left

Locked Up 7 Years

Girl, 13, Relates Abuse By Parents

SANTA CRUZ, Calif. (AP)—Except during school hours, she was locked in her room for seven years and never had a bath during that time, a 13-year-old related.

When a Juvenile Court official gave her a toothbrush and paste, the girl, Elaine Kensing, said she didn't know what they were for.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Kensing, are in jail in lieu of $2,500 bail each, charged with child neglect and contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Elaine, her sister Mary, 4; and brothers Frank, 15, and Robert, 8, were taken to Santa Cruz County Jail Thursday.

"Never have I seen a more abominable, degrading and disgusting way of life for any person to be subjected to," Officer Sue Curtis said.

Kensing told officers Elaine was confined for using vile words and sassing her mother. Mrs. Kensing refused to talk to police or reporters.

The girl's 10x12-foot room was described by officers as "utter filth." A door leading to a bathroom was nailed shut. The only toilet facility available to Elaine was a coffee can, Officer Curtis said.

The case came to attention of authorities when her father, who runs a shop dealing in coins and second-hand goods, reported her as a runaway.

When she was found at the home of a girl friend, Kensing asked that she be taken to Juvenile Hall as punishment.

Elaine burst into tears and told the story.

As It Nears Midway Point

Ohio Legislature Divided On Real Accomplishments

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—As the Ohio legislature approaches its normal midway point, there is wide divergence of opinion whether it will be able to rack up any real accomplishments.

For the record, Republicans who control both houses of the 104th General Assembly still have hopes; the minority Democrats are discouraged.

Both Senate Minority Leader Frank W. King, D-Lucas, and House Minority Leader James A. Lantz, D-Fairfield, have come to believe after 10 weeks of the session that the situation is "pretty much a stalemate."

They point out that bills recommended by Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle have failed to stir the enthusiasm of Republicans. And, they cite the obvious fact that controlling Republicans lack the votes to override a DiSalle veto of any of the GOP's pet measures he finds distasteful.

Both Republican leaders, however, say they are determined to press for passage of measures they believe should be enacted for the good of the state in spite of the veto possibility.

Ex-Wellsville Man Held For Hitting Driver

Police Say Slugging Follows Motorist's Injury In Collision

A former Wellsville resident is being held in the Midland jail today pending investigation of an alleged assault on a Calcutta motorist, who was injured when their cars collided Thursday night on the Fredericktown - Salem Church Rd., Ohio Township authorities said today.

Constable Bernard Zlatovich said Melbourne Feltrop, 32, of Darlington R. D. 1 is being held while police investigate the alleged slugging of Howard H. Pearce, 34, of Calcutta, who suffered a fractured knee and lacerations of the knee in the head-on collision.

Constable Zlatovich said he was told by Pearce that he was heading east on the rural road when the collision occurred.

After the accident, Feltrop got out of his car, pulled Pearce from his car and struck him in the eye, the Calcutta motorist reported. The mishap occurred about 6:45 p. m.

Pearce was treated at the Osteopathic Hospital for the lacerations and then was admitted this morning when an X-ray showed the knee fracture. He is in "good" condition.

Pearce's 1958 sedan was demolished and there was about $300 damage to the Feltrop car, Zlatovich said.

Slippery highways were blamed for two one-car mishaps late Thursday night and early this morning, the constable reported.

Headed east on Route 68, just west of Midland, Jesse Lucas of Pittsburgh lost control of his car and skidded into a ditch about 11:20 p. m. yesterday, Zlatovich said.

Lucas told the officer he was blinded by the lights of an approaching car and lost control. There was about $100 damage to his car.

A mishap at 12:15 a.m. on Route 168 at Cow Hollow caused nearly $300 damage to a car driven by William Riddle of the Midland Hotel, the constable said.

Riddle told police he skidded, lost control and his car plunged over an embankment.

State Highway Department crews asked the icy highways late last night, the constable said.

U.N. Hints Red-Backed Gizenga Out

Report Not Clear Rebel Military Head Has Taken Control

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Eleven captured leaders of Kivu have been released from a Stanleyville jail where they had been held since leftists seized their province last year, the United Nations said today.

While this indicated a change in attitude by the rebel regime, the U.N. command was unable to confirm reports from the leftist capital that Moscow-backed Antoine Gizenga had been deposed there.

Those reports said either the rebel military commander, Gen. Victor Lundula, or President Jean Foster Manzikala of Oriental Province had taken over. Both are considered firm supporters of the policies of the late ex-Premier Patrice Lumumba.

But both were reported to have vigorous measures to prevent reprisals against whites in Stanleyville after Lumumba's slaying last month in Katanga Province. Manzikala also has strong tribal backing in Stanleyville, something Gizenga never had.

A U.N. spokesman reported the release of Jean Miroho, former president of Kivu, and 10 members of his provincial government. Miroho had paid at least lip service to the central government at Leopoldville and had resisted pressure from Stanleyville in neighboring Oriental Province to join up with Gizenga. Gizenga sent in a raiding party last December, arrested Miroho and his officials, and took control of Bukavu, the provincial capital.

In Leopoldville, the U.N.'s Congo mission continued negotiating with Congolese leaders on the terms for the return of U.N. troops to the key ports of Banana and Matadi.

The U.N. spokesman told newsmen he could not comment on Congolese reports that agreement has been reached by which the United Nations and the Congolese would exercise joint control of air traffic here.

$300 Loss Set In Burglary Of TV Store

Loss will range between $300 and $500 in a burglary discovered Thursday noon at the Kapp Radio & TV Sales & Service Store, 131 E. 4th St., Victor C. Kapp of Glenmoor, the owner, estimated today.

Although the report of loss still is incomplete, it includes a 14-inch Motorola portable television set valued at $149.95, four transistor radios worth a total of $121, tools, two flashlights, radio and TV tubes and possibly other small items, Kapp said.

Although the store was entered sometime Wednesday night or early yesterday, the burglary was not discovered until about 11:45 a. m. Thursday when a clerk noticed that the portable television set was missing and notified the owner, police said. The investigation that followed disclosed a forcible entry.

Entry was gained by removing boards covering a 12-x-30-inch window on the second floor at the rear, officers said. Then the intruders climbed through the opening and went downstairs to the first floor, but could not open a door there because it was bolted on the other side.

They returned to the second floor and apparently climbed down an elevator shaft to a first-floor repair room, entering it via an unlocked door leading out of the shaft. That gave the intruders access to the front showroom.

In leaving, the burglars apparently unbolted the first-floor door and went up stairs, then out the window, officers said. Kapp said none of the loss is covered by insurance. Of the stolen radios, two are valued at $32.95, one is worth $29.95 and another $24.95, he said. All are "pocket size."

Pressing For Congo Debate

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — African delegates to the U.N. General Assembly pressed today for immediate debate on the Congo as the big powers remained deadlocked over whether to take up cold war issues at the Assembly session.

Leaders of the powerful African group, impatient over the haggling between the Soviets and the West that is delaying the Assembly, were trying to convince other delegates that since the Congo must be discussed, it should be discussed now.

The Africans argued that this would keep the Assembly moving and give the major nations time to work out some agreement on the agenda. But agreement at this stage appeared remote.

No nation has yet asked that the Assembly take up the Congo, but Ghana and a number of other African nations are reported trying to muster support for a debate early next week. Yugoslavia, whose foreign minister, Koca Popovic, arrives today, is said to have thrown its support behind the move.

The Assembly has before it several Congo proposals—the latest presented at the reopening of the Assembly Tuesday by President Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana, who wants the U.N. Congo operation put under a "primarily African" command.

Police Didn't Find Lunch, But Diamonds

CINCINNATI (AP) — County police couldn't find the lunch that was in Fred Hauser's lunch bag Thursday, but they found everything else.

That made Hauser happy because the lunch bag he had left atop his car trunk before driving from home at 6 a.m. also contained 12 diamond rings.

The rings, worth $300, belonged to customers of a jewelry firm where Hauser is a gem setter.

He had a morning of worry. But shortly after lunchtime Mrs. Alma Sickmann of New Burlington found a ring near her mailbox and police found the others nearby.

They couldn't find Hauser's ham sandwich and banana.

No. 16 School Picks 5 Pupils For Spelldown

Five students qualified for the district spelldown in a contest held by No. 16 School in Yellow Creek Township Thursday afternoon.

The school will host the district contest March 17 with other students from Salineville, Wayne Township, Franklin Local and United Local participating.

The annual countywide contest is scheduled April 3 in David Anderson High School in Lisbon.

The top two winners in the seventh and eighth grade contest, who advance to the district contest, are Beverly Reight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Reight, and James Falconer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Falconer. Ruth Ann Morris was third and Cathy Maylene, fourth, or second alternate.

At the fifth and sixth grade level, the three winners are Jean Serafy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Serafy, Marvin McIntosh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gale McIntosh, and Michael Cramer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Cramer.

Debbie McElroy was fourth and Kim Wood, fifth. Pronouncers were Jerry Russell and Miss Edna Duncan of the No. 16 faculty. Other teachers served as judges.

Films To Be Screened At Central Fire Station

Two films, a part of a first aid course being given city firemen, will be screened three times to night at Central Fire Station.

The films, "Our Obligation as Firemen" and "First Aid" will be shown at 7, 8 and 9 p.m. Area fire departments and the public have been invited to see the films. Asst. Chief Alfred Van Dyne said.

Dr. J. Keith Rugh and Dr. James D. Bennett have addressed firemen during the first aid course. Dr. Rugh spoke on the heart, its functions, and how to give first aid to heart victims. Dr. Bennett discussed shock treatment.

The first aid course will end next week. Van Dyne and Firemen Frank Shone are the instructors.

Midland PTA Plans Election

A talk by the Midland Civil Defense director and appointment of a nominating committee highlighted the meeting of the 4th St. Parent-Teacher Association Thursday afternoon at the Midland school.

Mrs. William Wyche, program chairman, introduced Daniel Orlando, who spoke on "Police, Fire and Civil Defense." A question-and-answer period followed.

The committee includes Aaron Golding chairman, Mrs. Pete Vorkapich, Mrs. Maurice Newman and Miss Margaret Hogan, principal of the Midland elementary schools.

The meeting opened with the flag salute and invocation by Mrs. Julius Jacob, president. Announcement was made that the operetta, "Rapunzel," will be held April 21 at 7:30 p.m. at the Midland High School auditorium, under the direction of Miss Despena Gaglian, music teacher at the 4th St. School. The cast will include students of the fifth and sixth grades.

The three Midland PTA's will be host.

Mrs. Jacob announced that the meeting May 11 will feature election and installation of officers. Two foreign exchange students from Geneva College in Beaver Falls will speak. They are Elizabeth Balph of Spain and Ernesto Mayans of Uruguay. Their topic will be "Youth Education in Foreign Countries."

Veterans Ask County Fund Information

LISBON — Some 30 representatives of county veterans' organizations met Thursday with Columbiana County commissioners and an aide of the Soldiers and Sailors Relief Commission to inquire as to the fund outlook and proposed transfer of the commission's quarters.

They met in Courtroom 2 with Walter Hunston, president of the Board of Commissioners, and Commissioners Galen Greenisen and Frank Wilson and Ronald Mackall of the relief commission.

Mackall, spokesman and chairman, asked the commissioners what their appropriation will be for 1961, why funds left over from last year couldn't be carried to this year's fund, and reasons for the proposed transfer of the relief office from the third floor to the basement, which formerly housed the county school board. The board will move to the relief offices.

He also reported he asked the auditor about transfer of funds but was advised that it couldn't be done.

He commented on the adequate space the office now has with four big rooms for the secretary, who works five days, and two investigators who work in their offices two days per week and some Saturdays.

The county school board has three small offices with eight employees working in and out of the office the full week.

Hunston responded that the budget for this year is being prepared and that he believes that if the spending of the first two months is any indication of the balance of the year, the commissioners should place about $100,000 in the relief fund. This is equivalent to half a mill which the relief commission is entitled to by law.

He also said that commissioners had received Prosecutor G. William Brokaw's opinion that the fund could not be carried over from one year to the next.

He commented that if the move of the school board and veterans office cannot be made, the county will have to secure another office at further costs.

Greenisen said he had heard rumors about the commissioners "kicking the soldier around." This was not his thought, he said, but he said he believes it would cost the county about $1,000 a year for rent of offices for the school board and that if the switch could be made it would save that much to spend on relief.

Wilson said he is not in favor of the move because he always got good services when ever he took someone in who needed relief.

Several officers and members of the veterans' groups said that they believe the commissioners are doing what they see fit and Mackall told the group that commissioners have always provided more funds when the relief commission has spent the quota for the year.

At the request of Greenisen, the group made a personal survey of the two offices and returned to the jury room to voice their opinions.

Rex Reich, clerk of the commissioners, said no one complained and the transfer of the offices will go ahead over the weekend.

Polio, Immunization Shots Start In Schools

LISBON — Dr. C. S. Palmer, county health commissioner, said his staff has started polio and immunization shots in schools of the county health district. They began at New Waterford School Thursday.

The March schedule follows:

Monday — Elkton; Tuesday — Calcutta; March 16 — West Point and Rogers; March 20 — Fairfield; March 21 — Leontonia; March 22 — Columbiana, and March 23 — United Local.

15 At Meeting At Pughtown

Fifteen attended the meeting of the Mill Creek Presbyterian Church Missionary Society Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dean Laughlin of near Hookstown.

The meeting opened with the group singing "What a Friend We Have In Jesus." Mrs. O. V. Boone, leader, used a study guide on the Gospel of John for the lesson. A circle of sentence prayers was opened by Mrs. Boone and closed by Mrs. Merrel Nichol.

Business was conducted by Mrs. Leonard Scott and roll call response was a Biblical verse beginning with "A" from John.

Mrs. Scott announced that the spring Presbyterian will be held April 20 at the Trinity church at Beaver Falls.

Mrs. Laughlin read the names to be remembered from "The Yearbook of Prayer" and the group participated in a circle of prayer.

Mrs. Scott read a letter of thanks from the Rev. Joseph Powlas of Booneville, Ky., for support.

Mrs. Edward Covert gave the secretary's report and Mrs. Laughlin, treasurer's.

The next meeting is April 2 at the home of Mrs. Ben Henderson.

Don't Let It Happen To Peace Corps

Rep. Frances P. Bolton, R-Ohio, seems to be the first legislator to say aloud what every congressman and senator is afraid of in the "Peace Corps" idea.

She is afraid of the "screwball element" that will be drawn to this all-expense-paid adventure as irresistibly as flies are drawn to frosted cakes at a picnic. Young people with no knowledge of life or experience with people, she fears, would do irreparable harm to the United States if they were taken into the Peace Corps.

Rep. Bolton voiced this fear to a meeting of Republican women in Washington. If the occasion arises, it should be voiced on the floor of the House of Representatives and the Senate. It is a real danger and it is going to be a knotty problem.

THE PEACE CORPS idea has been a smashing success, psychologically. It could be a smashing success in all other ways if its success could be guaranteed sociologically; that is going to be the problem.

Sociologically, the idea is bound to have a supercharged appeal for a certain type of recruit whose merits will need to be scrutinized with extreme care.

These will be young men and women and some not so young who always have yearned for something that made them feel useful but never found that certain niche in life where they were satisfied to make their Sunday pitch and keep on pitching.

Some of them have been showing up in the last few years in stringy beards and dirty clothing. A generation ago, they showed up in coonskin coats and abbreviated skirts. It used to be said of them that there were too many long-haired men and short-haired women among the misfits. Today it might be said that the misfits are overhauled in general.

Besides the outright beatniks, who can be identified on sight, there are the secret beavers, who are hard to spot. The secret beavers are always gnawing away but not always to good purpose. They have a fear-some habit of gnawing for the sake of gnawing their jaws. Some 20 years and longer, they were gnawing away at America by joining outfits whose spiers promised to overthrow this miserable failure of a free society and substitute something a little more Kremlinish.

THE WORST that can be said about people like this is that they're frustrated and trying to take out spite. They're mad dogs biting the hands that feed them.

The best that can be said for them is that they're half-baked.

But why try to say anything for them?

The Peace Corps can't use them, but it's not going to be easy to bar the door against them. Some of them are incredibly plausible when they feel they are being put on the defensive. And some of them honestly think they represent what the United States is.

If by some horrible accident, any of the latter landed in a spot where they could pick the same brand of tomatoes to spread their spirit of American throughout the world, Uncle Sam would be in the soup for sure—cream of tomato.

More Than A Company Matter

There's cause for concern in the clay industry's complaint against elimination by the Internal Revenue Service of an income tax depletion allowance.

The American Vitrified Products Co. in East End is one of the companies involved. It employs 175 and has a monthly payroll of $80,000.

These figures make the matter one of concern for more than the company itself. It is a matter instead for the entire community. American Vitrified has been an important part of our economic life too long to be forced to carry on the tax battle by itself.

Mayor Bert H. Goodballet already has expressed quite forcefully the city's feeling in a letter to Rep. Wayne L. Hays. And the Chamber of Commerce is preparing to get behind the drive.

The clay industry feels it is being discrim-

Citizens, Not Just Residents

This week's observance of the 40th anniversary of the city's Kiwanis Club points up the community service character of the organization.

A part of East Liverpool's civic pattern since 1921, the club has provided countless benefits and assistances for young people, adults and various groups.

And despite this past record, the club continues to look toward even greater service in the future, as demonstrated by a current Kiwanis International project to increase individual responsibility to serve the community.

Starting point in the program is analysis

The Once Over

Major auto makers will put seat belt gear in all 1962 models, but belts themselves will be listed as an extra. It will be optional with customer whether he buys one or not.

Since it is the belt which keeps a passenger in the car in a crash, this means a salesman can say, "If you wish to go through the windshield it's a matter of personal choice."

(Seems to us like an offer of a trip over Niagara Falls with everything to protect you except the BARREL.)

Auto industry says public has reacted coldly to safety belts, seeming to think it is cowardly not to put life up for grabs. But if Cornell research team's report that great loss of life is due to lack of belts is correct, Detroit should go whole hog and not leave such protection to car buyer's decision.

If belts are to be popularized, however, they had better come in a choice of colors with annual changes in belt design.

A chilly reaction to them is understandable. Few autoists like to start a jolly auto trip with warning, "Everybody fasten your belts, so you won't get pitched through the windshield."

It makes passenger feel as timid as the paperhanger who won't work on a six-foot ladder without a net or parachute. Auto salesroom conversation may run:

Salesman: I call your attention to the tackle for safety belt.

Customer: I notice all cars have this feature.

Salesman: Yes, but not our de luxe belt-bolting gear. Our bolts and clamps are the smartest on the market.

Customer: How about the belt?

Salesman: That's optional.

Customer: How can I fasten my belt if none comes with the auto?

Salesman: That's your problem.

(Suppose the customer wants a belt demonstration? Will competent salesman arrange for the necessary collision?)

A SAILOR broke through glass door of a Florida drugstore, swept drugs off counters and swung from chandelier, kicking merchandise from shelves. Police say he could give no explanation. (Explanation is simple:

inated against in that the concrete industry now has an unfair tax advantage not afforded to clay pipe manufacturers.

While the company, the city administration and the Chamber already are swinging into action as organized groups, there is something that each of us can do as individuals.

More letters to Rep. Hays, to U.S. Sens. Frank J. Lausche and Stephen M. Young, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue at Washington, and even to President Kennedy and Vice President Johnson, are in order to express indignation over what appears to be an unfair tax action against one of our important industries.

American Vitrified and the other clay concerns in the district have every right to have their complaint receive a thorough hearing, with the hope that a revision of the tax order will follow.

of members' citizenship accomplishment, compared to their potential, for a "citizenship quotient," similar to an intelligence quotient. The theory is that the man who rates his CQ is more likely to be motivated to meet his responsibilities to his government.

This analysis and effort to do more for neighborhood, school, town, state and nation is a worthy project not only for club members but for anyone who claims to be an American.

Kiwanis members or anyone who helps narrow the gap between the ideals and accomplishments of democracy are true citizens and not just mere "residents."

He had bought some pills at modern prices and was out for revenge.)

Seems to us all courts should open any Jimmy Hoffa case with "Will Mr. Hoffa kindly take his foot off the accelerator while speeding through this case?"

JFK is for carrying out national super-highway system at all costs but a good many autoists would give anything for an old-fashioned country road.

President Kennedy has installed in White House a butler's pantry, with a huge icebox so he can conveniently raid it for a late snack. The icebox raid is necessary to good government, in our opinion but only when the President is so youthful he can indulge in it without the slightest danger of a rebuke from the White House physician. JFK comes in that category. He can be a late-snack man without putting the government or himself in jeopardy.

Bob Kennedy, who played some football at Harvard tosses football back and forth to "Whizzer" White, an aide who was All-American, during office conferences. Well, office conferences can be pretty deadly, resulting in no gain and often a 15-yard loss. A little football can be helpful, perhaps, when the issue is whether to punt or run.

Airlines Strike Hurt U.S. Prestige

By Victor Riesel

Any wildcatting flight engineer with a short wave receiving set handy at 3:13 p.m. on Feb. 24 could have heard his strike discussed by the East German radio in Berlin.

Because most of the strikers who tied up most of America's commercial aviation for six days probably were not listening and might not have understood German if they had tuned in, here are a few excerpts.

I pass these along because the cockpit engineers might again decide to ground U.S. jets if the White House special board rules against them on or before May 27.

"Not a single plane of Pan-American Airlines," announced the East Berlin commentator, "has taken off or landed at Tempelhof Airport in West Berlin for three days because of the flight engineers strike. Air transportation, called essential by West Berlin city politicians, has thus been suddenly curtailed."

"The instability of the front-line city and the anomalous nature of West Berlin's situation have thus again been clearly revealed."

"MAYOR BRANDT considered the situation so grave that he took the risk of demanding that the foreign occupying powers act against the strike."

"The panic of front-line city politicians went so far that the newspaper Der Tag demanded an 'airlift' as a countermeasure to the strike."

A small event in West Berlin has thus suddenly become a symptom revealing the instability of the front-line city and its untenable and anomalous situation."

Thus spoke the news correspondent over the Soviet-controlled radio. Of course, the striking flight engineers—half a world distant—had no more idea of what the East Berlin radio script writer would do with the news of their wildcat, than we correspondents have of Khrushchev's intentions to go barefoot again.

It's a small world, as the jet fly boys know. A sense of responsibility should be supersonic. Furthermore, if the political implications across the world were not obvious to the wildcaters, the financial ones should have been. It will be a while before we measure the global prestige this strike cost the United States. But now finally the money loss has been counted.

IT IS APPARENT that the strike cost went well above $60 million in little more than a week. It's only money and that may not match the heartache of three million pro-Western folk in West Berlin but it's enough money to put some of the airlines in the red, even if it doesn't do that for the West Berliners.

When Pan-American's accountants stopped counting the other day they reported a strike loss of some $9 million. This line's net take in '59 was some $7.7 million. Trans World Airlines' loss during the wildcat was $5 million.

In all, the eight struck airlines lost some $31 million during the six-day stoppage. Another $10 million was dropped during the mop-up period needed to slip back into smoothly-working daily schedules. And lest the $15,000-$6,000-a-year airline flight engineers forget their fellow workers, the other employees lost more than $12 million in pay when they were temporarily laid off.

Thus, there is documentary evidence of a $53 million loss right there.

I LEARNED in college physics that if the airplanes don't take off, the passengers don't fly—which meant that 700,000 people were grounded that week. From this comes a "radiating loss," as one of the government's aviation experts put it.

Just multiply the loss in fares for taxis, buses and other transportation to and from the airports by the number of grounded passengers. And what of the loss in profits of the thousands of service and food units at the hundreds of airports?

Hold that pencil and multiply some of these figures by the 64 commercial aviation strikes called since 1948. Add to this the fact that some 15 of these stoppages were simply the result of jurisdictional feuding between two unions. The total is appalling.

There must be an appeal to reason. There is only one force which can win if wildcatting pushes anyone into the Red.

Who'll Be Cabinet Star?

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

It's that time in the life of a new administration when looking at the President's Cabinet is like examining a chorus line to guess who'll star.

By this time in President Eisenhower's first administration three of his Cabinet already were tagged as standouts: Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey and Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson.

It's not that easy with President Kennedy's Cabinet. Yet, he has some extremely forceful men around him. But so far Labor Secretary Arthur J. Goldberg has had far more attention than the others.

Dulles, Humphrey and Wilson all lived up to early expectations, but in different ways, and were on stage till the end of their service. Dulles and Humphrey became dominant and controversial.

Wilson, who occasionally popped off to his own disadvantage, was as controversial as either of the other two but never seemed to acquire their authoritative voice.

By comparison the rest of that first Eisenhower team—with the exception of Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson—remained shadowy figures.

Goldberg, if only because of the events which immediately began to overtake him, so far has given the impression of more speed than anyone else in the Kennedy Cabinet. His problems, of course, were of the kind to make headlines.

First, he had to settle a tugboat strike which had New York in knots; then he had to settle an airline strike which had the nation in knots. He made a trip through the depressed areas, appeared repeatedly before Congress, and even flew to Miami to talk turkey to the AFL-CIO Executive Council.

Some of the others in the Cabinet will move up front and center as their problems multiply.

Confusion Compounded

By David Lawrence

Federal Aid To Schools Seen More Muddled

President Kennedy in his press conference on Wednesday did not clear up but rather added to the confusion he has already created by his public discussion of the issue of whether federal funds may be used to aid non-public schools.

News reports of his press conference on March 1 gave the impression David Lawrence that he had said that there was "no room for debate on the constitutionality of any phase of the matter." So a reporter asked this question at the March 8 conference:

"Mr. President, you said last week, as I recall it, that there was no room for debate about this matter."

The President: "No room for debate about grants. There is obviously room for debate about loans, because it has been debated. My view, however, is that on the matter of loans, to the best of my knowledge and judgment, this has not been tested by the courts, of course, in the sense that grants have been. But by my reading of the constitutional judgments in the Everson Case, my judgment has been that across-the-board loans are also unconstitutional."

What was said in the Everson Case as decided by the Supreme Court of the United States on Feb. 10, 1947? Here is the pertinent quotation:

"The 'establishment of religion' clause of the First Amendment means at least this: Neither a state nor the federal government can set up a church. Neither can pass laws which aid one religion, aid all religions or prefer one religion over another. Neither can force nor influence a person to go to or to remain away from church against his will or force him to profess a belief or disbelief in any religion."

"No person can be punished for entertaining or professing religious beliefs or disbeliefs, for church attendance or non-attendance."

"No tax in any amount, large or small, can be levied to support any religious activities or institutions, whatever they may be called, or whatever form they may adopt to teach or practice religion."

PLAINLY the prohibition is against any aid whatsoever to religious teaching. There is no ban, however, against aid to a religious institution for anything that is not directly related to the teaching or practice of religion. Thus, in the bill which President Kennedy has sent to Congress providing scholarships for students who may attend any institution, public or non-public, religious or non-sectarian, there is a stipulation that $350 may be paid by the federal government as a "cost of education allowance" directly to the institution itself to supplement the scholarship payment made on behalf of the student.

This is, of course, a direct grant of aid and is no more related to the teaching of religion than any loan would be which is repayable with interest over a number of years.

The President was asked at his press conference whether he would veto such a bill. He said he would prefer to wait and see the measure before he made a decision but his present view was that such a bill was unconstitutional. He added:

"I think it is very clear about what my view is of grants and loans across-the-board to non-public schools. Now colleges are in a different category."

"Specific programs of grants, even to colleges which are non-public, have been supported by the Congress and signed by the president. Loans and even grants to secondary education under some circumstances might be held to be constitutional. But across-the-board to all non-public schools, in my opinion, does raise a serious constitutional question which after reading the cases and giving it a good deal of thought, in my opinion is and to my judgment would be unconstitutional."

THERE IS no helpful explanation that can really be derived from reading the decisions of the Supreme Court. No differentiation is made in any decision between a grant and a loan. The whole issue revolves, therefore, around the form of aid.

Aid that helps teach religion is, of course, prohibited. Aid, however, that pays transportation by buses or gives fire or health protection or assists in the construction of fireproof buildings or classrooms is not an aid to religious education as such.

Mr. Kennedy told his press conference that he is "extremely sympathetic to those families who are paying their taxes for public education and also sustaining their children in non-public schools." He added that he believes there are constitutional barriers nevertheless that he has to take into account.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt had no such inhibitions. He used to tell Congress that, if they had any doubts about constitutionality, they might as well pass the legislation and let the courts decide afterward.

As for Congress, it will find millions of citizens objecting to any penalty or form of discrimination being imposed against parents who are already incurring a double expense for the education of their children.

The Fourteenth Amendment says that all citizens are entitled to "equal protection of the laws" of the states. The Supreme Court has also gone a step further and said that this principle must be applied to the "equal protection" of citizens under federal laws.

Kennedy Runs The Show

By Rowland Evans Jr.

"There's really nothing to it."

an adviser to President Kennedy said. "It's just a matter of the President keeping a series of intimate, bilateral consultations going all at the same time on different matters, remember everything that is said, be ready to put in a call to an assistant secretary of state, read all the newspapers and magazines, keep up with the new cold war literature, be available instantly for unexpected crises, be kind to congressmen—and if you can do all those things and do them well, as my boss is doing, then you'll be a good President."

The key words in this somewhat whimsical job description are "bilateral consultations." For 14 years as a member of Congress, Mr. Kennedy ran his office affairs that way. The door to his private office in the old Senate Office Building was open to members of his staff. He was almost continuously on the telephone. His contacts by mail were wide and diverse. He kept himself immersed.

"Bilateral consultations" explain as much as anything else the difference between the new President and his predecessor. Mr. Eisenhower had frequent consultations, too, but they lacked the depth and diversity of Mr. Kennedy's.

In other words, speaking only comparatively, Mr. Eisenhower intentionally restricted his contact points to as few individuals as he could; Mr. Kennedy intentionally expands his to as many individuals as he can.

This is the fundamental change that has brought so many expressions of concern by conventional politicians that Kennedy "can't keep all those balls in the air at the same time." Until proved, this concern is not likely to have much impact on the new President.

Mr. Kennedy's total immersion in virtually all aspects of the nation's affairs—to the point that the smallest print claims his attention and few policy makers are immune from an unexpected phone call—may or may not turn out to be a better way to run the country than other ways that suited other presidents.

Some conventional and some not-so-conventional politicians and planners are concerned about the potential for crossed lines, personality feuds, conflicting advice and the like.

Letter To Editor

In the item on Page 3 of Tuesday's Review regarding the proposed sewer for North and South Surry Roads, it is stated that "The affected property owners have not filed a formal request with Council." May I ask the editor what action could be more formal in city procedure than a properly executed petition?

A petition with over 40 signatures was filed with Council last September, as reported by The Review at that time.

Since then a lot of time and effort has been put forth to try to bring this project to a satisfactory conclusion. Now it seems that it is getting closer to completion. The cooperation received from the mayor, the city engineer, and members of Council has been very gratifying, and with their continued assistance the required legislation will soon be offered for approval and the project completed.

Deaths and Funerals

R. C. Shively
Claimed At 68

ROGERS — Roy C. Shively, 68, former grocer and fishing lake operator here, died of a heart attack this morning at 1:15 at Salem City Hospital.

He was born June 11, 1892, in Cornersburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claren Shively. He was married to the former Grace Ann George July 26, 1921.

In 1927 he established the Shively Grocery Store here and operated it until 1945 when he built the Shively fishing lake, operating it until 1960.

He was a member of the Rogers Methodist Church, Negley Masonic Lodge 565, the Lisbon American Legion Post and the Anna Eckley Chapter of Eastern Star of Negley.

Besides his widow, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Isabelle Edgerton of Lisbon and Mrs. Virginia Regel of Warren; two brothers, David Shively of Canton and George Shively of California; a sister, Mrs. George Braden of Warren, and two grandsons. A daughter, Miss Helen Shively, died in 1929.

Services will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. at the church by the Rev. Mark George. Burial will be in East Carmel Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Warrick Funeral Home in Columbiana Saturday night. The body will lie in state Sunday at 1 p.m. until the time of service.

Clarence Eddy

Clarence Eddy of Paden City died Wednesday morning in the Veterans' Hospital at Clarksburg. He was 70.

Mr. Eddy was born in Tyler County, W. Va., Sept. 7, 1890, son of John Eddy and Mary Forester Eddy. A World War I veteran, he was a retired pipeline employee. He was a member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church at Paden City.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Ella Eddy at home; two sons, four sisters, including Mrs. Fred Phillips of East Liverpool, and three brothers, including Willard Eddy, also of East Liverpool.

Services will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. at the church by the Rev. Harry Ward. Burial will be in the Glen Haven Memory Gardens, Paden City.

Friends may call at the Mowery Funeral Home in Paden City.

Mrs. Alice Smith

Mrs. Alice U. Bostock Smith of Cleveland, formerly of East Liverpool, died Thursday morning at Evangelical Deaconess Hospital in Cleveland after a brief illness. She was 86.

Mrs. Smith, the widow of Harry V. Smith, had gone to Cleveland about three months ago to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fink. A daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Fink, preceded her in death.

Mrs. Smith leaves five grandchildren.

Services will be held Monday at 1:30 p.m. at the Church of St. Philip the Apostle at W. 33rd St. and Dennison Ave., Cleveland. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery in Cleveland.

Friends may call after 7 tonight at the Bollinger Funeral Home, 9810 Dennison Ave., Cleveland.

J. Herbert Finley

Services for J. Herbert Finley of Prescott, Ariz., a former resident of Georgetown, will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Georgetown Methodist Church by the Rev. David Dayen. Burial will be in Mill Creek Hill Cemetery.

He died Tuesday morning at the Colorado Hospital in Denver following a long illness.

Friends may call at the Welch Funeral Home in Hookstown this afternoon and tonight from 7 to 10.

Lewis N. Ankrom

Services for Lewis N. Ankrom, 921 Alton St., will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Bradshaw Ave. Church of Christ by Charles Hendershot, minister. Burial will be in Calcutta United Presbyterian Church Cemetery.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Addie Kenney of Chester. Friends may call at the Martin Funeral Home tonight.

5 Midland Area Cases
On Beaver Trial Dock

Five Midland area cases are among 32 set for trials beginning Monday in Beaver County Court in Beaver.

They include Arvin Bell, charged with adultery and bastardy; Raymond Veasey, indecent assault, and Charles Dickey, liquor violation.

Anthony Czerpak of the Ellwood City area faces trial on a charge of fraudulent conversion. The complaint was made by James A. LeFebvre of Industry, who alleged Czerpak was to install a kitchen and had cashed two checks for $413 each.

Cassie Maze of Smiths Ferry faces trial on a charge of pointing a deadly weapon.

Midland

Law 481, "the tax-anything law," the courts would rule it legal.

Over 100 non-resident workers met Monday evening at the Ohio View fire hall to form a committee and possibly make a test case of the tax.

Beaver Falls Council adopted an occupation tax recently but dropped it because the city has so many taxes under Act 481.

The Midland tax will be collected beginning June 1 from those on payrolls as of May 1. A 2 per cent discount will be allowed if paid within 60 days.

Council adopted the tax at its meeting Feb. 23.

In other business, Councilman Raymond Presutti asked Matt Brozic, street foreman, to request that R. E. Steebner, borough engineer, obtain prices for tree pruning, spraying, removal and trunk removal in order that the tree program can be resumed when the weather breaks.

Councilman Joseph Hibbard reminded councilmen that a voter field registration will be held Monday from 1 to 9 p.m. at the borough Building for voters to change party affiliations or make any other changes.

Corak reported on a recent trip made by several from Council to attend a joint meeting of the Pennsylvania Boroughs' Association and the league of municipalities with congressmen at Washington.

He said the group favored a resolution that additional monies be added to the federal sewage program and there is a chance Midland may still get a grant.

Councilman Joseph D'Alesio, also president of Steelworkers Local 1212, said the group protested to congressmen that something be done about corporations exporting jobs, particularly in regard to steel mills.

He said mills are bought "over there" when they could utilize labor here.

Steve Germusa, president, commented that all residents of Plan K have now paid their assessments for streets.

Bills were ordered paid and borough officers' reports were accepted as submitted.

2 Pittsburgh Men Hurt
In Route 30 Mishap

Two Pittsburgh men were injured Thursday afternoon when their car hit a bridge abutment on Route 30, and a tractor-trailer was damaged when the trucker ran into a hillside to avoid striking the auto.

Christopher Dressel, 40, a passenger in the car, is in "fairly good" condition at City Hospital with severe multiple lacerations of the face and scalp.

The driver, Michael Mengine, 23, also of Pittsburgh, was treated for contusions of the left knee and right ankle. Both were brought to the hospital by a passerby.

Mengine's car crashed into the abutment at Shane's Hill, a mile west of Laughlin's Corners, with the car then swinging out onto the highway.

The unidentified trucker saw the stalled car and ran into the hillside, jack-knifing his unit, to avoid the auto.

Pennsylvania State Police at Carnegie said they had no report of the mishap.

Mayor Cites
Lisbon Needs

LISBON—Village financial needs were outlined by Mayor Dean Stockman and members of Council at a meeting of the Mid-County Republican Club Thursday night at the Village Hall.

The officials discussed the proposed 3-mill levy to be submitted in the May 2 election to provide additional funds for village operations.

The mayor said the community's revenue has dropped some $16,000 since Ohio Highway Patrol cases were taken from mayor's courts. He also referred to the worn-out equipment now in use in the village.

Mrs. Vida Davies, president, introduced the officials.

The group unanimously endorsed a recommendation that the proposed relocation of State Route 62 be south of the present route and inside the county.

A coffee hour followed.

The only U. S. president who did not live in the White House at Washington was George Washington.

Enters Plea Of Guilty

SANDUSKY, Ohio (AP)—A plea of guilty to a larceny-by-trick charge was entered Thursday by John Snider, 29, of Toledo. He is one of seven men indicted in Erie and Lucas counties for soliciting advertising for a nonexistent publication. The judge took his request for probation under advisement.

Marks 49th Anniversary

Girl Scouts Will Honor Early Founders Sunday

"Honor the Past — Serve the Future" will be the theme for the annual anniversary party of the East Liverpool Area Girl Scout Council Sunday from 2 to 4 p. m. at Westgate School. It will launch the annual observance of Girl Scout Week.

The event, commemorating the 49th anniversary of scouting in America, will give the girls the opportunity to pay tribute to over 100 women who pioneered the local movement.

A STEERING committee of 12 women was selected in 1943 to organize and develop the scouting program in the city.

Although there were lone scattered troops in the late 20's and early 30's in outlying districts, it was not until this committee began work that the movement started to grow and to reach its registration figures of over 1,480 girls and some 200 active registered adult volunteer workers.

The efforts of these early founders resulted in the establishment of two camp sites, the Bryan Recreation Center in Dixonville and in 1955, Camp Echo Dell on the Bell School Rd.

The Bryan Center was acquired in 1945 as the result of the gifts of a number of lots, and the unified drive of the East Liverpool

Area Girl Scout Council, troops and parents.

AT THE ECHO Dell site, two large cabins have just been completed to provide facilities for troops and primitive camping for the older scouts this summer. Younger girls will use the site for picnics, nature walks and all-day outings.

Becoming organized during World War II, the Girl Scouts quickly offered their services by helping with the United Nations' clothing drive, the Victory Canned Goods Drive and assisting in the sale of war bonds, becoming aware that "the privileges of citizenship demanded responsibilities as well." "These principles still remain the core of the Girl Scout program," sponsors said.

The entire organization, which includes East Liverpool, Wellsville, Chester and Newell, will combine to participate in Sunday's program. Following the flag ceremony and invocation, a musical tribute to the "Founders" will be presented by a mass Girl Scout Chorus, directed by Miss Elizabeth Eunson, youth director of the First Church of Christ.

SENIOR GIRL Scout Troop 27 will present the colors. The Rev. Albert Rodenhause, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will give the invocation.

Mrs. David Beatty, president of the council, will extend greetings. Mrs. J. B. Cartwright will have charge of the presentation for the local founders.

The Rev. Carl Beighley, pastor of the Calvary Methodist Church, will give the benediction. To portray the second part of the theme, the troops will present the "Girl Scout Program in Action" with a display of arts and crafts and a variety of skills and activities.

The event has been arranged by Mrs. H. F. Banfield, program chairman, and committee, Mrs. Louis Tobin, Mrs. John Koss, Mrs. Kenneth Myers, Mrs. J. N. S. Porter, Mrs. Cartwright, Mrs. Lawson Mason, Mrs. Raymond Rolley and Mrs. Donald Ogilvie.

The affair is open to the public and all parents, troop members and friends are invited.

River-Lake Highway Boosters To Hold Annual Meeting Here

The Lake Erie-Ohio River Highway Association will hold its annual meeting in May in East Liverpool.

Initial plans for the session were discussed Wednesday afternoon when the Board of Trustees of the four-county group met at the Youngstown Club in Youngstown.

Columbiana County was represented by Atty. Francis H. Lang of East Liverpool, president, and E. R. Chandler of East Liverpool and A. P. Morris of Salem, members of the board.

Lang and Chandler are expected to set the date of the meeting in East Liverpool, southern terminus of the lake-river highway.

A highlight of the session will be the annual election of four members of the board, followed by election of officers.

Lang appointed a nominating committee comprised of Chandler, as Columbiana County representative; Walter Scott of Mahoning County, W. C. Gamble of Trumbull County and Leo Brown of Ashtabula. The committee will present a slate for the election of four board members. Then the board will reorganize and elect officers.

Those whose terms are scheduled to expire are Lang, Harold Mills of Warren, Paul Mossman of Youngstown and A. C. Patterson of Ashtabula.

The group is comprised of representatives of the four counties interested in construction of the highway as a link between Lake Erie at Ashtabula and Ohio River ports at East Liverpool.

The board also voted to publish a small brochure as a mailing piece giving information on the four counties that will be served by the new highway. It will show data on population, real estate values, industries and other pertinent points.

The brochure is scheduled for publication in time for the annual meeting.

Boy, Girl Picked By Chester Lions To Attend Camp

Albert Lyons and Beth Sayre, Chester High School juniors, will attend Camp Horseshoe near Parsons in June under the sponsorship of the Chester Lions Club.

Selection of the students was announced at a meeting of the club Thursday night at the clubhouse. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lyons of Lawrenceville and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sayre of Grandview.

Donald Hood reported plans are complete for the club's annual broom sale March 20.

John Boyd reported on the minstrel show planned in April. A rehearsal will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 at the American Legion home.

Named to a nominating committee for election in May were Harry Lewis, Dr. J. M. Brand and James Wallace. A board meeting will be held Thursday.

Dino Rossi, president, was in charge. The next meeting is March 23.

Director Asks Report On Mishap To Fire Cop

Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver said today he has asked for a formal report to determine the cause of a mishap which damaged the door of the fire chief's station wagon.

The reports were asked from Chief Charles Bryan and Fireman Donald Lynn, who reportedly was backing the station wagon into Central Station when the accident happened.

Chief Bryan already has submitted an informal report, the director said.

Unofficial reports indicate one of the folding doors slammed into the door of the station wagon as Lynn backed into the station.

Kent University Choir To Visit Here March 20

The Kent State University Choir will make two appearances in East Liverpool during its spring vacation concert tour.

Directed by Prof. Robert Hull Foulkes, the choir will sing at an assembly at East Liverpool High School at 12:50 p. m. March 20, and then present a concert at 8 p. m. in the First Methodist Church.

The choir will appear at Toronto High School the morning of March 21.

Agent To Assist In Filing Of Taxes

COLUMBIANA County Auditor Kenneth Bell said today a representative of the office will be at various locations in the county beginning Monday to assist in the filing of personal property tax returns.

Businessmen must bring a complete balance sheet and accounts reported on federal income tax return and farmers must bring completed 910-B farm inventory sheet. Returns filed after April 30 will be subject to a penalty, Bell said.

The agent's schedule follows:
Monday — Hill Amoco Service Station in Rogers, 9 a. m. to noon, City Hall, East Palestine, 1 to 3 p. m.; Tuesday — Davidson Chevrolet in Homeworth, 9 a. m. to 3 p. m.; Wednesday — Loudon Ford Garage in Hanover, 9 a. m. to 3 p. m.; March 17 — City Hall, Salineville, 9 a. m. to 3 p. m.; March 20 and 21 — Union Bank in Columbiana 9 a. m. to 3 p. m.; March 22 — City Hall, Leetonia, 9 a. m. to noon; March 23 and 24 — City Building, Salem, 9 a. m. to 3 p. m.; March 27—City Hall, Wellsville, 9 a. m. to 3 p. m.; and March 29 and 30—City Hall, East Liverpool, 9 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Boy's Nickel On Good Deed Brings Him $900

OWENSBORO, Ky. (AP)—Joe Wiles, 17, spent a nickel on a good deed and won $900.

He spotted an expired parking meter, dropped in a nickel and was arrested when he refused to tell officers whether the car was his.

A Circuit Court jury decided Thursday that the youth violated no ordinance—even though the car belonged to a stranger. It ordered the arresting officers to pay the youth $450 each. He had sought $5,000 on a claim of false arrest.

$3.8 Million Salt Cost

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle says that through January the severe winter cost Ohio $3.8 million for salt to melt ice and snow on state highways. This was $1.3 million more than for the entire winter a year ago. Total snowfall through January, he said, averaged 37½ inches, compared with 21 inches for last winter.

$130,000 Asked In Traffic Suits

Four suits totaling $130,000 claiming injuries in an auto accident were filed in Common Pleas Court Thursday by Thomas Neilson of Ada St., on behalf of his children, Michael Neilson, 9; Darlene Neilson, 14, and Donna Neilson, 11.

Raymond P. Dell, administrator of the estate of George Dell Jr., deceased, was named defendant. Neilson asks $15,000 for injuries to himself and to his three children; Michael Neilson asks $50,000; Donna Neilson, $50,000, and Darlene Neilson, $15,000.

The suits are based on a collision July 16, 1960, on Route 30, about 3.6 miles south of Lisbon, when a car driven by George Dell Jr. allegedly struck the Neilson car driven by Thomas Neilson, killing Dell and Mrs. Bernice Neilson, wife and mother of the children.

The petitions claim that the State Highway Patrol said at the time of the accident that Dell had been drinking in a tavern in California Hollow and went left of center on a curve and smashed head-on into the Neilson sedan.

East Firemen Called When Stove Overheats

Quick action by a city ham radio operator in cutting off the fuel to an overheated oil heater prevented a fire in his Dixonville area home early Thursday evening, Liverpool Township East volunteer firemen reported today.

Charles Burke of Lee St. Ext. pinched a copper tube leading from the fuel tank to an oil radiant heater and prevented a fire in the "shack" he uses to operate his radio, firemen said.

The appliance became overheated when a float in the operating mechanism apparently stuck. Burke immediately used pliers to pinch the fuel line.

Eighteen firemen responded to the alarm at 6:10 p.m. and stood by with extinguishers until the stove had cooled. There was no damage to the room, William Smith, captain, reported.

Calcutta Mothers Club Hears School Director

George Van Horne, executive head of the Beaver Local schools, spoke for the meeting of the Calcutta Mothers Club Wednesday afternoon at the cafeteria of Calcutta School. Some 33 attended.

Mrs. Pat Rayburn, president, conducted business. The group voted to purchase a slide projector for the school. A bake sale is set for Monday at Ogilvie's.

A coverdinner will be held at 12:30 p.m. April 12 at the cafeteria.

Talks On Fund Drives

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—President Ray R. Eppert of the Burroughs Corp., Detroit, said at the Midwest regional conference of the United Community Funds and Councils of America Thursday that "these drives are not just another campaign. They are based on sound communitywide planning and efficient, businesslike budgeting and administration." Eppert spoke after he received the organization's national award, a medalion, for outstanding volunteer service in its welfare campaigns.

Chester Mayor Plans City Beautification

Plans are being made by Chester Mayor Ray Collins for an intensive community cleanup, paint-up and fixup drive April 30-May 14, part of Gov. W. W. Barron's statewide campaign.

Mayor Collins said a committee consisting of two men and a woman is to be named to head the drive to improve the appearance of the city. He and other Hancock County officials attended a meeting at Charleston this week at which the campaign plans were aired.

Driver Forfeits

SALINEVILLE — William C. Connelly of Pittsburgh forfeited a $16 bond Thursday night when he failed to appear for a hearing before Mayor Kenneth Leishman on a charge of speeding. He was cited Tuesday by Police Chief Cleo Melott driving 50 miles an hour in a school zone.

Midland CD Hospital Will Be Distributed

Parts of Midland's $35,000 hospital will be moved Saturday about 9 a.m., Daniel Orlando, Civil Defense, director, said.

A third of the equipment will be moved for storage at Midland Lincoln High School and third in the cellar of the Post Office building. The rest will remain in a garage behind the Borough Building. Orlando said parts are being moved to prevent complete loss of the hospital in case of fire at the present storage location.

New Cumberland PTA Names Committee To Plan Election

NEW CUMBERLAND — A nominating committee was named to prepare a slate of officers for election next month when the Parent-Teacher Association meets Thursday night in the high school.

Mrs. Wade Campbell, faculty member, is chairman. Also named are Mrs. Thomas Mitchell and Mrs. W. C. Connell.

Mrs. Stanley Zapor, president, conducted devotions. Supt. Robert H. Hall outlined points of the proposed $54-million bond issue to be decided by voters in May. The bonds are for two new high schools and a new junior high, plus modernization.

Supt. Hall said that principals of various schools in the county have been named to serve as "information centers" for the bond promotion. County residents wishing information are to contact the principals of schools in Chester, Newell, New Cumberland, Pugh-town and Weirton.

Miss Rowena Herron led devotions. Reports were heard from committees and Mrs. Edgar Hobbs, secretary, and Mrs. Earl Tice, acting treasurer.

Attendance banners were awarded Miss Herron's second grade and Mrs. Harry Givens' seventh grade. Male members of the unit were hosts, with Arnett Baker as chairman.

The refreshment table was decorated in a St. Patrick's Day theme. The next meeting is April 13 when the nominating committee's report will be heard.

Bettis Explains Road Fund Needs

The need for additional funds for road and street work in Columbiana County communities and townships was cited by State Rep. Warren Bettis for his support of the Ohio House bill approved Wednesday to shift road funds.

Bettis and Rep. Clarence Wetzel backed the measure, which would divert some $15 million in license plate fees from state to local road programs. The county would receive some $155,000 more annually.

Bettis said some 82 per cent of roads in Ohio are owned and operated by subdivisions. "We cannot classify one road more important than another, especially where children are to be transported over them," he said.

Bettis said he also supported an amendment to the U. S. Constitution providing residents of the District of Columbia the right to vote in presidential elections, now being submitted for ratification by the states.

Man Held For Court For Theft Of TV Set

A 37-year-old Salem man was bound over to the April Grand Jury Thursday afternoon for burglary of a Wellsville home last June 19.

Robert Earl Wolfe was held for court by County Judge James L. MacDonald under $1,000 bond after he pleaded guilty.

Wolfe was arrested in Salem Tuesday afternoon. A television set was stolen from the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Sprague, 551 Main St., Wellsville.

East Liverpool police received a tip that a set had been sold to a Glenmoor area family and they notified the sheriff's department. Investigation showed the set had belonged to the Sprague family. Chief John Hephner of Wellsville filed the charges.

125 To Attend 4-H Program

Approximately 125 are expected to attend a program tonight at 7:30 in Swaney Memorial Library at New Cumberland as Hancock County 4-H Club members conclude their observance of National 4-H Club Week.

Each club will participate in a talent show. Teddy Kokochak of the Fort Jefferson club of near Weirton will be master of ceremonies.

Mrs. Alvin Reed, leader of the Chester Town and Country 4-H group, will direct the recreational period. Movies of national club activities will be screened by Carl Nay, leader of the New Cumberland 4-H Nature and Conservation Club.

Each member is to wear pins in observance of the national week. Nine clubs have exhibited window displays in the county this week. The winners will be announced tonight.

Radio and television programs on their 4-H careers were presented by Mrs. James Arehart, leader of the Pioneer Club of Pughtown, and president of the County 4-H Leaders Association, Susan Priest of the Pioneer Club, and Kenneth Markle of the Fort Jefferson Club.

National 4-H Club Week activities were planned by Mrs. Julian Wilson, Mrs. Russ Hutchinson, Nay, Mrs. Lonnie Blankenship and Earl Jones.

Hearing Set Thursday For Youngstown Man

A Municipal Court hearing is set Thursday at 3 p.m. for a Youngstown man arrested yesterday afternoon at 2 on two charges alleging he drove a commercial vehicle without the proper operator's permit or license plates.

LeRoy Carnathan, 21, was cited on W. 5th St. by Patrolman W. E. McDaniel. Taken before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, he was released on $150 bond pending the hearing next week.

Carnathan told the judge he was making a delivery in a station wagon for a beauty supply house for which he works. Police charged the vehicle should have carried commercial plates because it was being used for cargo and that Carnathan was required to have a chauffeur's permit for its operation. He carried a conventional driver's license.

Famous Maple Sugar House Leveled By Fire

CHARDON, Ohio (AP)—Fire destroyed the famous Maple Sugar House in Burton's Municipal Park east of here Thursday night. The blaze at the scenic Geauga County site, visited by thousands since it opened in 1956, came at the height of the maple sugar season.

The fire reportedly started in the boiling room, where the maple sap is processed. A spokesman for the Burton Chamber of Commerce said it appeared the products stored inside would be a total loss.

Police Group Meets

SALINEVILLE — About 10 attended a meeting of the auxiliary police Thursday night at which plans for training programs were aired. Police Chief Cleo Mellott is to arrange for films and speakers. The next meeting is March 23.

Recreation

"We have the makings of one of the most beautiful parks in this area. This is just the beginning of what we hope will be a much more ambitious program in the future."

In connection with the expanded program, Council is seeking to set up arrangements with a local bus concern to provide a regular schedule to and from Thompson Park during the summer, Melvin said.

"I know the park board will accomplish wonders with the additional money," Melvin said. "The board is to be commended for the manner in which it has administered funds in the past."

A program of full-time supervision at the park swimming pool, launched in 1960 as a safety measure, also will be continued in 1961, the finance committee chairman said.

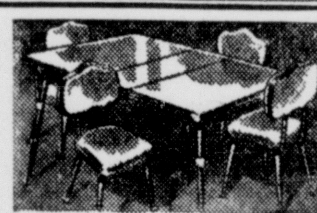

City Teacher Accepted For Finance Seminar

Miss Isabel Clouse, economics teacher at East Liverpool High School, is the first applicant accepted for a two-week course on financial institutions which will be conducted by Ohio State University and sponsored by the Ohio Savings & Loan League.

Sponsored by the Potters Savings & Loan Co., Miss Clouse will be one of 25 high school teachers enrolled when the seminar begins June 19.

A graduate of Ohio State with a degree in business administration, she majored in accounting with a minor in economics. She has taken post-graduate work at Duke University and the University of Colorado.

Miss Clouse also attended summer workshops on economic education at Ohio University and family financial security at Miami University.

Fund Drive Eyed For Mental Health Guidance Center

Tentative plans for a fund drive to implement establishment of a guidance center for Columbiana County were discussed at a meeting of the Executive Board and officers of the county Mental Health Association Wednesday at Lisbon.

Dr. R. E. Bonam, state school psychologist, and Atty. Jack Cohen of East Palestine and Atty. William Bush of Wellsville discussed the project.

Plans call for various organizations in the county to assist in the drive. The state will provide matching funds on a two-to-one basis for such a project.

Plans were also discussed for the annual meeting in April and a membership drive in May. Mayor William Shoub of Wellsville, president, presided.

Supports A-Plant

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. William H. Harsha, R-Ohio Thursday urged the House - Senate Atomic Energy Committee to maintain the nuclear research plant at the General Electric Co. installation at Evendale near Cincinnati. The plant is engaged in research on atomic airplanes. The committee is holding hearings on whether to transfer the operation to the Pratt & Whitney plant at Hartford, Conn.

Autopsy Slated Today On Doctor Found Dead

ESTES PARK, Colo. (AP)—An autopsy was planned today on the body of an Ohio doctor found dead in a hotel room here after being missing two days.

The hotel owner found the body of Dr. Gunter A. Lamm, 42, Thursday afternoon. That was 24 hours after the doctor arrived in this Rocky Mountain resort city. He told the hotel desk clerk he intended to stay only for the night.

Dr. Lamm, the only physician in the Mercer County community of Mendon, Ohio, was believed last seen in that area by his wife when he returned home around noon Tuesday.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Slimness Means Youthful Appearance

"My dear, you're looking beautifully well...and 10 years younger!" If that's the compliment you wish to hear this spring, then eat to build slimness.

Presumably, the woman who asked for the most beautiful way to lose 10 pounds had in mind a routine that would help her look and feel young.

By Ida Jean Kain
er than springtime. Exercise is the tonic measure and protective nutrition with calories curbed is the tonic measure — slimming, too. The first rule of a safe reducing diet is to include adequate protein. Protein is the nutrient that builds and repairs all tissues in the body. To get a striking idea of the importance of protein in the daily diet, take a look in the mirror.

IN "FOOD"—The Yearbook of Agriculture," Dr. Ruth Leverton expresses the body's need for protein in this picturesque fashion: "You are looking at a superb package of proteins when you see yourself in the mirror. All that shows—muscles, skin, hair, nails, eyes—are protein tissues.

"Teeth contain a little protein. Most of what you do not see is protein, too — blood and lymph, heart and lungs, tendons and ligaments, brain and nerves, and all the rest of you."

The word protein means "first place," so put protein first. Instead of just counting calories, count protein grams first. According to the recommended daily allowances, women need a minimum of 50 grams of protein and men 70 grams of protein daily.

However, 85 or more grams are often recommended for reducing diets, for protein has the power to stimulate metabolic processes and stave off hunger pangs.

For a rough estimate, figure each of the following foods as furnishing seven grams of protein: 1 egg, 1 glass of milk, skim milk or buttermilk, one ounce of cheese, including cottage cheese; one ounce of lean meat, fish or fowl. This figure of 7 is an average and easy to remember.

Bread, whole grain cereals and peas, beans and lentils furnish small but significant amounts of protein. Count bread at 2 grams per slice, cereals at 2 grams per half-cup; legumes at 7 grams per half-cup.

Build each meal around one or more complete protein foods. If your daily diet includes an egg, a pint of skim milk or buttermilk, 4 ounces (cooked weight) of lean meat, fish or fowl, and three slices of bread, you would have approximately 55 grams of protein.

TO BOOST THE protein, add a half-cup of cottage cheese, or an additional small serving of lean meat or fish. Cottage cheese is an excellent food, for one-half cup counts only 110 calories but furnishes 21 grams of protein.

Protein is the nutrient that shores up sagging tissue and helps you to look and feel young.

Send stamped, self-addressed, long envelope for "Revised Calorie Chart." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain in care of this newspaper. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I need help—bad. I am married to a sniffer. Yes, that's what I said. She has a nose on her that would put a hunting hound to shame.

The minute I step inside the door she says: "Who did you have a drink with?" Or: "Swell perfume— somebody you work next to, I suppose?"

If I have a mint in my mouth she'll say: "What are you trying to cover up with that mint? Where've you been?"

Last week she said: "Your coat smells of heavy smoke. The tavern by the shop, eh?"

What beats me is the dame is always right. I get so mad I could crown her. Is there any way I can come out ahead?—DOC.

Dear Doc: No. She has your number. Play it straight and don't try to outsmart her. She'll win every time — by a nose.

Insatiable Appetite

Dear Ann: I am counting on you to give me a tongue lashing so don't let me down.

I've lost 31 pounds and have started to fall back into my old eating habits. The penalty is 15 pounds gained back. This may not sound important to you but if I don't get control of myself I won't be able to fit into my cheerleading skirt. My mother says she will not buy me another stitch of clothing larger than a size 12. Still I continue to eat much more than I should.

Please shame me into getting back on my diet. I feel miserable after I've eaten a big piece of chocolate cake but I have no will power. — FAT-STUFF FROM KALAMAZOO.

Dear Fat-Stuff: I can't come to Kalamazoo and put a zipper on your lip, Toots. And shaming you is out of the question because you've done a thorough hatchet job on yourself which proves you've got a pretty tough hide.

A high school girl who loses 31 pounds and proceeds to gain back half of it needs a head doctor's help and guidance. Problems originating in your balcony are affecting the dimensions of your back porch.

Confidentially

TO IN DOUBT: Stop following him. Where is your dignity anyway?

TO SHOULD I?: Yes. Give this man a chance in spite of his prison record. I am betting he will not let you down. Many ex-cons are forced back into crime because no one will give them a break.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, ed, self-addressed envelope.

what's new at Olsen's

Forecast: Spring '61

"Ollie Olsen"

COLOR—Spring fashions seeth with it. Pink, delicately tinted or intense, is the big color of the season, appearing in everything from daytime coats and suits to romantic evening dresses. Also important are vibrant tones of Green, Yellow, and Coral. Finally, the perennial Black-and-White theme shows up in strong, often abstract designs.

Delicious for Spring! How to look luscious? Wear a strawberry pink. We think this is the most delicious hue to come along in many a Spring. What a complexion flattering shade it is. And the new seasons shapes of suits, coats and dresses do still more to make you look absolutely delectable in strawberry pink. Ollie just received a new shipment of this lovely color in dresses and coats. Dresses to wear now and all through the summer. Coats that will make you feel like the loveliest lady in the Easter parade.

One of our favorites is a smart all wool nubby boucle, double breasted, with the new shorter sleeves—priced at just 29.79.

So hurry right down and make your selection right now. Use Olsen's convenient lay away plan—we'll be glad to hold your coat or dress 'til Easter.

Speaking of accessories, have you seen the newest handbags at Olsen's? Particularly the new marshmallow leathers. They're just as pretty and soft as their name implies. Roomy pouches that will hold all of milady's little personal items that she loves to carry with her. In all the newest colors of Bone, Green, and Mushroom. All priced from 2.88 up.

Have you visited Ollie's new jewelry bar? Your eyes will glow with pleasure when you see the hundreds of shimmering pieces of new spring jewelry. No wardrobe is complete without the proper accessories. With the new collarless fashions—necklaces are most important. Never have so many been on display at one time. From single strand chokers to multi strand opera length (which by the way, is very new) in fresh water or iridescent pearls. Then there's three and four strand in beautiful pastels. Of course, there's earrings to match. All priced from 94c up.

You can spend hours just browsing in our jewelry and handbag department. Remember Ollie's are open every night until nine. That's all today—see you next Friday.

'Sudden Death' For Tigers . . .

The fact that Wellsville got the ball twice in the sudden death overtime and didn't get a shot seemed to disturb Coach Jack McDewitt after Thursday night's District tournament loss to Bellaire at New Concord.

The first time Wellsville got possession, a high pass went awry, on a fast break and then the second time a Tiger player was called for traveling. There was no third time as "Boots" Edwards hit on a long corner shot to end the struggle.

"We had it won a couple times but couldn't hold the ball," McDewitt said.

He was referring to the four-point lead Wellsville owned with 50 seconds to go, then a Bellaire player stole the ball with 11 seconds remaining and Bellaire went on to tie the game in regulation time.

"Edwards was real tough, but Bellaire isn't as good as I've seen in the past," McDewitt added.

"We didn't look bad last night, but I thought we were a little tight," the Wellsville mentor said when asked about his team.

As far as the District tournament is concerned now that Wellsville is out of it, McDewitt says, "Bellaire is a little bigger than Cambridge, but Cambridge has better balance."

He saw Cambridge play New Philadelphia Wednesday night.

AL BAILEY'S Geneva Spencer team lost a tough decision, 35-33, to Lowellville and fell out of the District tournament at Canton. Al wound up with a 16-6 record this season.

A Vote Of Confidence . . .

The Little Potters League received another vote of confidence in Wednesday night's turnout of more than 700 fans for its second annual benefit night.

From the comment following the "tripleheader" the fans indicated they received their money's worth, while at the same time helping to promote basketball in East Liverpool.

It wouldn't be surprising that four or five years from now these same boys who are now playing in the Sixth and Seventh grade league will be representing East Liverpool High School in the state tournament.

It's a long-range project, but with the continued support of the fans, which has been excellent the last two years, it will be assured of success.

The Little Potters League stands to clear over $750 from the game Wednesday night. The League made about the same amount last year at its game when some 800

This 'N That In Sports . . .

BERNIE ALLEN has begun workouts with the Purdue baseball squad. He was in town for the Lou Venditti Appreciation Dinner last Saturday night.

This will be a big season for the former Potter three-sports star, who is almost certain to sign a major league contract upon graduating from Purdue.

The Boilermakers have a southern trip planned in baseball before returning to Lafayette to start the Big 10 season.

COACH LOU Venditti will be driving Kenny Cunningham and Mike Geon to North Carolina State College at Raleigh this weekend.

THE NEW CASTLE YMCA will hold a junior basketball tournament March 20-25. It is open to anyone who has not reached his 19th birthday. Those interested should write to the YMCA in New Castle.

LARRY MCSWEGIN, a product of Chester High and a freshman at Tarkio (Mo.) College, is the weight man on the school's track and field team.

CHESTER HIGH'S basketball team will be honored with a banquet Saturday at 6 p. m. at the Chester Legion.

Mayor Dave Frew of Weirton, a former college classmate of Chester Coach Max Tuttle, will be guest speaker. Frew also serves as a sportscaster at radio station WEIR in Weirton. He is a former West Liberty College football player.

The banquet is being sponsored by the Chester Basketball and Football Mothers.

East Tech Nips Parma To Remain In Running

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Only a tenth of Ohio's high school basketball teams were still in action today. All but 96 of the 954 total have been belted out of the running for the state championships.

With the district finals due this weekend, 16 in each class will survive for next week's regional play. A full program is scheduled to night and Saturday. Of the 555 Class A teams, 46 have survived the "lose and out" tournament grind, as have 50 of the 399 larger Class AA teams.

Thursday night's action was abbreviated, but it gave three of the Top Ten in the final Class AA poll a chance to advance. Cleveland East Tech's 1958 and 1959 champions nipped Parma 66-62 to enhance the second-place rating of the Scarabs; fourth-ranked Cleveland West Tech triumphed 70-53 over Oberlin, and unbeaten Columbus Linden McKinley, seventh in the poll, eased past Gahanna 44-42.

Newark's three-time state champions were the night's big victors, the Wildcats dropping a 53-49 decision to Columbus Grandview.

Regional berths will be at stake in several games tonight, with all the others clearing the way for district finals Saturday.

Cleveland St. Joseph, ranked tenth in Class AA and boasting a 21-0 record, goes against Cleveland East (14-7) tonight at Eastlake for a spot in the Kent Regional. The other 15 will be decided Saturday.

In Class A tonight, Dennison St. Mary (17-5) meets Sugar Creek

Wellsville Five Falls In 'Sudden Death'; Bellaire Captures District Tilt, 53-51

NEW CONCORD — A long, arching jump shot from the corner in a sudden death overtime by Bellaire's "Boots" Edwards ended Wellsville's march along the tournament trail, 53-51, here Thursday night at the Muskingum College gym.

Big Red Bounces Back Twice To Win

as the contest entered the first overtime.

Kiggans, who gave an all-out performance and wound up as the game's top scorer with 23 points, scored on a layup to draw first blood in the overtime period. This made the score 51-49.

Bellaire came down and failed to score and Wellsville gained possession of the rebound.

The Tigers were in the process of putting the game on ice as they attempted to eat up the clock, but with 11 seconds to go Big Red's Chuck Turner knifed through and swiped the ball.

Bernie Walker took an 18-foot jump shot and missed, but Edwards proved the hero again as he rebounded and scored with only three seconds left to tie the score once again, 51-51.

In the sudden death period, Edwards missed, Turner rebounded but failed to score.

Kiggans finally grabbed the rebound and threw a long pass to Ours who was sneaking down the floor wide open. The pass was high and Ours wasn't able to control it. Walker grabbed the ball for Bellaire without Wellsville getting a shot.

Bellaire lost the ball again and Wellsville's Junior Jones went for a shot but didn't shoot, came down and was called for traveling.

Bellaire came up the floor and Edwards went into the corner, a favorite spot for him, and ended the marathon affair.

The Tigers got rolling and Kiggans, Wellsville's bread and butter man all season, went on a five-point scoring spree near the end of the first half to tie the score at 21-21. Jones converted a foul and the Tigers took the lead, 22-21, at intermission.

It appeared as if Wellsville would pull away early in the third period. Kiggans scored three points and Phil Baldwin dropped the thorn in the Tigers' side again with a three-point play that cut the lead to 40-38.

Against a pressing defense employed by Bellaire, Steve Baldwin made a layup that sent the count to 42-37, and then after Bellaire scored a foul Kiggans dropped in a pair of free throws for a 44-38 edge.

Potts' fielder trimmed the lead to 44-40 with five minutes to go. With 2:20 left, Ours hit on a foul to make it 47-42. Potts got another field goal, Turner put in a rebound and Wellsville's lead was trimmed to 47-45 with a minute to go.

With 50 seconds remaining, Bellaire lost Potts on personal fouls. Steve Baldwin converted both fouls for a 49-47 lead.

Big Red's Dick Busby hit on a jump shot to put his team within two points, 49-47.

With 18 seconds remaining, Phil Baldwin had a chance to clinch a victory but missed two free throws. Bellaire grabbed the rebound and Edwards provided a 49-49 tie.

Kiggans, who was Wellsville's strength on the boards also drew praise from McDewitt for his outstanding defensive game.

The Tiger star, who finished his high school career as Wellsville's second all-time scorer — topped only by Dan Baldwin — ended with a four-year total of 1,119, only 36 from tying Baldwin.

Kiggans dropped in eight field goals and batted a 1,000 from the foul line with seven-for-seven.

Ours was next in line for the Tigers with 10 points while Steve Baldwin added eight markers and grabbed his share of rebounds. Phil Baldwin wound up with seven markers.

Last night's defeat gave Wellsville an overall mark of 13-8.

Wellsville's appearance at the District tournament marked the first since 1954 and the first for Coach Jack McDewitt in his four-year tenure with the Tigers.

Sparring Partners Bombed In Floyd's Final Workout

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer
MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson's final boxing workout was the talk of the town today. Whether this was a good sign or not for Patterson remains to be seen.

While opponent Ingemar Johansson visited friends in the Palm Beach area, the 26-year-old champion bombed his sparring partners Thursday with a full assortment of punches. They were thrown from all angles with precision, speed and power. Many of them were unloaded in clusters of two, three and four.

When it was all over sparmates Wilson Hannibal and John Henry said the champ never looked better.

"He'll knock Ingemar's head off," said Henry, a 210-pounder from New York. "I don't think it will go five rounds."

But Patterson, after the workout said, "I didn't go all out. I have had much better workouts."

Patterson defends his title against Johansson in their third fight at Miami Beach's Convention Hall Monday night.

At his press conference following the workout, Patterson made a pitch to help the ticket sale. He said another thousand tickets will be available at $20 each.

A source in a position to know said that the fight will do well to gross $500,000 on a sale of 12,000 tickets for the 17,000-seat hall.

The closed circuit telecast to theaters and arenas, however, represents the big payoff for the fighters. The fight will be shown in 207 locations in the U. S. and Canada.

United Five Crashes Into 'A' Finals; To Face Lowellville

CANTON — United, gaining a 26-point performance from backcourt whiz John Hanna, found itself in the finals of the Canton District A tournament after turning back South Amherst, 60-40, here Thursday night.

Coach Larry Joseph, in his first year at the helm, will send his United five against Lowellville Saturday at 5 p. m. with the winner advancing to regional play. Lowellville nipped Al Bailey's Geneva Spencer team, 35-33.

United stamped itself a winner from the beginning by posting a 13-7 margin at the end of the first quarter. The Eagles increased the lead to 30-19 at halftime and 44-25 at the end of three periods.

While Hanna fired in 26 points, his running mate Jerry Schaffer scored 17 and Larry Marks added 10.

United pushed its season record to 11-12.

Sherill Hudson topped South Amherst with 14 points while Bob Thompson tallied 10.

Revitalized Kentucky Five Wraps Up Southeastern Crown

Looms Threat To Buckeyes In NCAA Play

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Who's the biggest stumbling block in mighty Ohio State's bid to repeat as National Collegiate basketball champion? Down Blue Grass way, and maybe elsewhere too, they're likely to tell you it's Adolph Rupp, now that his revitalized Kentucky Wildcats have parlayed a 10-game winning streak into a record 12th appearance in the NCAA tournament.

The Wildcats, all but written off after they lost three of their first four conference games and won only eight of their first 15 over-all, showed Thursday night they've come all the way back by crushing Vanderbilt 88-67 in a neutral court playoff to determine the Southeastern Conference representative in the tournament.

Now it's on to the NCAA Mid-East regional at Louisville for the Wildcats. If Kentucky gets past its first NCAA game, March 17, and Ohio State also wins its first game, they'll be matched in the Mid-East regional final the next night.

For the record, Ohio State—everybody's No. 1 and now riding a 28-game winning streak—has lost only three games in the two years Jerry Lucas and buddies John Havlicek, Larry Siegfried and Mel Nowell have been together. One of the three losses was to—y' guessed it—the Kentucky Wildcats, 96-93, back in December 1959.

The Wildcats have one tune-up before the tournament opens—playing their regular season finale against another NCAA-bound team, Marquette, at Chicago Stadium Saturday night.

Marquette rallied behind Don Kojis to whip Xavier of Ohio, 77-74; NCAA-bound St. John's (N.Y.) pushed its winning streak to nine, 76-64 over New York U., and Tennessee State, the No. 2 small college power which had been clamoring for a bid to the National Invitation Tournament, was upset 92-82 by Winston-Salem Teachers in other features of Thursday night's programs. The loss knocked Tennessee State out of a return trip to the NIAA small college tournament at Kansas City, which State had won two of the last three years.

Oklahoma State defeated Oklahoma 60-47 to clinch at least a third place tie in the Big Eight Conference, and Manhattan ended its season with a 78-69 triumph games Thursday night.

Perini Foresees Segregation End On Negro Players

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP)—Lou Perini, owner of the Milwaukee Braves, believes that the end of segregation for Negro baseball players in the South is "just around the corner"—if baseball men are permitted to do the job. "The time for integration will come soon—so soon that it's right around the corner," Perini said. "But let us in baseball do it by ourselves, without the interference of would-be do-gooders. These people want to make political capital out of the situation and take credit for the job when it's already done."

"It is baseball's job. We want it to happen. It will happen, but not by some great demonstration which builds up to threat and more resistance."

Perini came here to see his 1961 candidates work out and to discuss plans for the season with club officials.

World Champs Open Exhibitions; Law, Friend, Face Will Hurl Today

By BEN OLAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

It seems like only yesterday. Bill Mazeroski took a firm toe-hold, swung at Ralph Terry's second pitch and drilled a ninth-inning homer that gave Pittsburgh a 10-9 victory over the New York Yankees and the world baseball championship of 1960.

That was on last Oct. 13. Today, the Pirates help open the 1961 exhibition season. They meet the Cincinnati Reds in Fort Myers, Fla., while Detroit faces the Chicago White Sox at Sarasota, Fla., in the only other game.

Saturday all 18 big league teams will see action.

Pittsburgh Manager Danny Murtaugh is wasting no time getting his regulars ready for the opening of the regular season. He has tapped Vernon Law, Bob Friend and Elroy Face to work against the Reds today.

Detroit's new manager, Bob Scheffing, will test Don Mossi, Paul Foytack and Ray Narleski against the White Sox.

Several other managers will be leading with aces this weekend. Warren Spahn of Milwaukee, Drysdale of the Los Angeles Dodgers, Bob Turley of the Yankees, Bill Monbouquette of Boston and Robin Roberts of Philadelphia are other leading pitchers slated to work.

In most cases, the spotlight will be on rookies such as outfielder Willie Davis of the Dodgers and Jay Hankins of Kansas City and shortstop Jim Fregosi of the Angels.

Willie Davis is last year's Pacific Coast batting king. Hankins, up from Shreveport of the Southern Association, was voted the most valuable player in the A's five squad games. Fregosi, who played Class D ball in 1960, was chosen to start against the Chicago Cubs Saturday.

The Indians start their exhibition against San Francisco Saturday.

The remainder of the day's slate matches Milwaukee and Philadelphia at Clearwater, Fla.; St. Louis and New York at St. Petersburg, Fla.; Cincinnati and the White Sox at Sarasota; Pittsburgh and Baltimore at Miami and Detroit and the Minnesota Twins at Orlando, Fla.

The Cubs and A's will split their squads. One Kansas City team will meet the Dodgers at Vero Beach, Fla., and the other takes on Washington at Pompano Beach. One Cub unit is booked against the Angels at Palm Springs, Calif., and the second against Boston at Mesa, Ariz.

Primo Carnera To Feature EL Lions Club Mat Show

Primo Carnera, who won the world's heavyweight boxing championship in 1933, will be featured in an all-star wrestling show Saturday March 18 at Memorial Auditorium, sponsored by the East Liverpool Lions Club.

Carnera, who captured the heavyweight title when he knocked out Jack Sharkey in New York, will be in the ring again, but this time in a wrestling match against "The Crusher" Lisowski, one of wrestling's foremost "villains."

Professional wrestlers who appear each Saturday from 6 to 7:30 p. m. on Channel 11 in Pittsburgh will perform here during the Lions show.

The semi-final match will pit two topnotch grunts and groaners in Ace Freeman and Don Fargo. Two preliminaries are scheduled, with Billy Fox, who now resides in East Liverpool on Rubicon St., meeting Gypsy Joe.

Fox, formerly of Cleveland, was the junior heavyweight wrestling champion at one time.

The other preliminary will get underway at 9, with Zivko Kivacic tangling with Jack Vansky. Police Chief Americo Radeschi and Christ Pallis are co-chairmen of the ticket committee and announced that they will be on sale downtown at Heimies, Reark's, Reese's and in East End at Jordan's Sobio Station. Tickets also may be purchased from any club member.

Slaughter Named As Head Football Coach At Capital

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gene Slaughter, Ohio State University assistant football coach, takes over March 20 as head gridiron mentor at Capital University here. Slaughter succeeds Jack Landrum, whose teams compiled a 43-30-4 won-lost-tied record in his 10-year tenure at Capital. Landrum asked to be relieved so he could devote more time to coaching track and helping in the university's over-all physical education program.

Slaughter, a Capital graduate, joined Ohio State a year ago, coming over from Warren Harding where he earned Ohio high school coach of the year honors in 1957. In 10 years of prep school coaching—at South Point, Jackson and Warren—his teams rolled up an 84-16-3 record.

Speculation is that Buckeye seniors Alan Fiers and Jim Herbstreit will move into the assistant OSU coaching positions vacated by Slaughter and Gordon Larson, who left to become head coach at Akron U.

Slaughter, named to the Capital job Thursday, also will teach physical education and coach tennis.

Wynn Not Quitting Now, Needs 16 Games For 300

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—At 41, Early Wynn refuses to yield to Father Time. Although he has lost some of the hop on his fast ball and he may need an extra day of rest between assignments, the burly right-hander is still the solid man of the Chicago White Sox pitching staff.

Wynn is fully aware that he must hang up his glove some time but he insists it won't be for at least three or four more years.

"Why, the addition of two new teams alone will add another year or two to my career," he said.

Wynn is more concerned with this year than he is with the future.

"I need 16 victories to reach

300," he pointed out. "I want those games more than anything I've ever wanted in my life. I'll get them, too, but I'd like to get them this year. I think I will, provided I don't get hurt."

Wynn won only 13 games last year but he finished strong, winning 11 in the second half of the season.

Wynn figures he should win from 16 to 20 games this year. The rugged campaigner, who will be starting his 21st year in the American League, calls himself a fortunate man for being "around so long."

"There aren't many 35 or older guys around," he said. "You've got to be lucky to stay around as long as I have."

Banker's Mile Will Feature Chicago Meet

CHICAGO (AP)—A skinny Hungarian army captain, who could turn in the first indoor four-minute mile, and a pair of high school distance stars elbow for the spotlight in the 25th Chicago Daily News Relays tonight.

The Banker's Mile will gain most attention from an expected Chicago Stadium crowd of 12,000 as Hungary's Istvan Rozsavolgyi, 31, fresh from a 4:01.8 effort, tries to crack the four-minute barrier on the boards.

One of Rozsavolgyi's rivals will be Bruce Kidd, 17, of Toronto, youngest athlete ever to win a National AAU title which he took in the three-mile run. The Canadian schoolboy recently ran the two-mile indoors in 8:49.2, second fastest time for the event ever recorded in this country.

The other schoolboy star is Tom Sullivan, 18, Chicago St. George High School senior, who is entered in the Harry Gill 1,000-yard run against such seasoned joggers as Ed Moran of Penn State and Olympian Peter Clope.

Sullivan got a standing ovation from 13,000 fans in Los Angeles earlier this winter when he ran a 4:13.7 mile.

Rozsavolgyi's 4:01.8 clocking in last week's Knights of Columbus meet in New York was only four-tenths of a second off Don DeLaney's indoor mile record of 4:01.4 set in 1959. Rosy's other rivals in the Baker's Mile include Charles (Deacon) Jones, a 4:07.8 winner of the Boston K of C Mile this winter and Lt. Lew Stieglitz, winner of the Chicago Relays' two-mile title in 1959.

Yorky, star handicap horse at Hialeah this winter, is named for a titled English friend of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Markey. Mrs. Markey owns Calumet Farm.

Ohio Pickup Team Is Big News At ABC

DETROIT (AP)—The way things are going in the 58th annual American Bowling Congress tournament, the big-name bowlers can take some lessons from the unknowns.

With bowling's biggest stars competing in the new Classic Division a pick-up team of five bowlers from Urbana and Springfield, Ohio, is providing the biggest news since the marathon opened last Saturday.

Stu's Drive In, a group that had bowled together only once before in a Sunday afternoon friendly match, cracked out a 3027 series Thursday night to take over first place in the regular team division and outshine such classic stars as Billy Golembiewski, Ed Lubanski and Therman Gibson.

First team to go over the 3000 mark, Stu's Drive In had games of 957-1011-1059. Team members and their totals were Charles Egan 679, Swisshelm 635, Robert Egan 604, Astorino 600 and Powers 509.

Sullivan Furnitures of Detroit, formerly the Pfeiffers, finished their six-game Classic Division with a 5720 total, adding a 2930 total Thursday night.

In the regular team division Your Steel Supply team of Toledo moved into second place with a 2911.

Inman Tops Field By 2 Strokes In Pensacola Open

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP)—Walker Inman's best showing in PGA golf was a tie for seventh in the Milwaukee Open in 1957, but today he held a two-stroke lead in the Pensacola Open.

Inman fired a 4-under-par 68 in the opening round, coming in with a fine 31 on the back nine in his first tourney this year.

Inman, 31, needed only 28 puts on his first competitive round. He said his irons did the trick for him.

Inman was two strokes ahead of George Bayer, Dave Ragan and Jimmy Clark going into the second round of the $20,000 meet.

Bunched behind them at 71 were Jack McGowan, Gerald Sota and Marty Furgol. Tommy Jacobs, Bobby Nichols, Don Fairfield, Tommy Bolt and Dow Finsterwald were at 72.

Arnold Palmer, defending champion here, started off with two birdies and posted a one-over-par 73.

The field will be cut to the low 60 and ties after today's round. The tournament continues through Sunday.

Bucks Eyeing First Perfect Big Ten Mark

By The Associated Press
Ohio State will be out to write a page in Big Ten basketball history in a regular season wind-up game at Illinois Saturday.

The engagement, one of four ending the conference campaign, will be regionally televised starting at 4:30 p.m. EST.

The Buckeyes, top-ranked in the AP poll and crowned Big Ten champions a second straight year, need a victory to become the first conference team since 1919 to go through the season unbeaten.

Ohio State, whose next goal will be a second successive NCAA championship, also would become the first team to win the Big Ten crown with a perfect league mark since the Illini Whiz Kids in 1943.

The Bucks enter the game with a 13-0 conference record and an all-game winning streak of 28 stretching back to last year.

"Fred Taylor (Buckeye coach) will have his team keyed as high as possible," says Coach Harry Combes, whose Illini lost 91-65 in their first meeting with the Bucks and have a 5-8 conference record.

"Taylor doesn't like our Huff Gym, and he's never forgotten what happened there in 1959 (Illinois won 81-80 then on a last-minute basket which was disputed by Ohio State)."

"On top of that, Illinois was the last team which went unbeaten in the Big Ten. That's just another angle Taylor can work on."

In other final games, Iowa and Purdue, each with 9-4 marks, will try to nail down runner-up spot. Iowa is at Northwestern (6-7) and Purdue is at Wisconsin (4-9) for an afternoon encounter. Michigan (2-11) is at Indiana (7-6).

Geoffrion Should Share His Bonus With The Rangers

By The Associated Press
Boom Boom Geoffrion already has earned $3,600 in bonus money this season and by right he should share some of it with the New York Rangers.

The star Montreal right winger scored three times Thursday night as the Canadiens moved into a tie for first place with Toronto in the National Hockey League by beating the Rangers 6-1. Detroit clinched a Stanley Cup playoff spot by defeating Boston 5-2 in the only other game.

Geoffrion's goals gave him 46 for the season and 300 for his career. His 1960-61 contract calls for a $1,000 bonus for scoring 20 times and $100 for each goal over that total. In the seven games against the Rangers at Montreal's Forum, all won by the Canadiens, Geoffrion had 14 goals.

Dykes Sees No 'Super' Clubs To Beat In AL

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Are the Cleveland Indians ready to make a run for the 1961 American League pennant? A man who calls himself a realist argues for the affirmative.

The speaker is James Joseph Dykes, manager. This is the way he put it at a Tucson Press Club forum recently:

"There isn't much to beat. There are no super ball clubs in the American League. The Yankees are good, yes, but you can't compare them with some of the great Yankee teams of the past. The White Sox are fair. But they've both got problems and unless they solve them perfectly we can beat them both."

So how does that justify the Indians' high rating? Dykes continues:

"I know my first line is as strong as any in the league. I'm not so sure of my bench, and if we fall down that's the thing that may trip us. But on the other hand I've got some of the best young talent here I've seen in any training camp."

"They've showed me what they can do in the field. Now if a couple of them can swing a bat we'll be in good shape."

How about the pitching, rated by some as 75 per cent of a team's efficiency? Again, back to Mr. Dykes:

"Pitching may be our greatest strength. Gary Bell is the key to the situation. If he has recovered from last season's arm trouble—and every indication is that he's as good as he was last season—Johnny Antonelli is bound to help. Behind them are some of the strongest young arms in baseball. The Indians have a tradition of exceptional pitching and this year could strengthen it."

A final question: Does Jimmie Dykes consider himself an optimist by nature?

"I'm not an optimist and I'm not a pessimist. I'm a realist. I've been around this business too long to be fooled by the superficial things."

"I believe I've got a good ball club—one that should surprise no one if it wins the pennant. I'll stick with that opinion until I see a lot more reason to revise it than I've seen thus far."

Wilma Rudolph Heads Field In AAU Track-Field

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A field of about 100, with Wilma Rudolph of Olympic fame as the stellar attraction, started running and jumping here today in the two-day Senior Women's AAU Track and Field Championships.

Miss Rudolph's Tennessee State team has won the AAU sprint relay title the last several years and is heavily favored to take it again. She anchored the team which won the women's Olympic title and produced one of her three gold medals in the 1960 event at Rome.

Four Ohio middle-distance runners also hold interest. Rose Lovelace, Mrs. Grace Butcher, Sandra Knott and Pat Douthitt, all of Cleveland, will vie with former record-holder Sandra Pashkin of New York City in the 880-yard run.

Wellsville Boy May Be Victim Of Amnesia

The Jefferson County sheriff's office in Steubenville still is searching today for the parents of a Wellsville youngster who apparently is a victim of amnesia.

Edward Schohn, 16, who gave his address as Main St., Wellsville, is being held in juvenile detention quarters until the sheriff's office locates either his parents or a relative.

The youngster appeared on a Steubenville television news broadcast Thursday evening in hopes of identification but no leads have turned up in the search for his parents, deputies said.

The boy was picked up by deputies at Jefferson State Park near Richmond where he had gone for a camping trip. He told deputies that he had moved only recently to Wellsville from Pittsburgh.

Wellsville police and sheriff's deputies from Steubenville checked Main St. areas Wednesday and Thursday but were unable to locate the boy's parents.

The youngster gave the names of Mr. and Mrs. John Connors as his step-parents. Deputies said "he is not very talkative and we can't learn too many details."

The youngster has a badly sprained ankle and injured foot and it is believed he may have injured himself seriously in a fall, causing his memory to lapse.

The sheriff's office said the boy will be held in juvenile detention quarters until his parents are located.

Road Clearing Work Detailed

Ashes and salt spread on highways this winter to maintain traffic have cost a total of $75,000 to date, Gaylord Zellers, superintendent of the State Highway Department's county garage, told the East Liverpool Democrat Club Thursday night at a meeting in the Council Chamber.

Principal summer projects of the highway crew will include repair of berms, ditch cleaning and weed and grass cutting. Zellers said. Six mowers are kept busy cutting weeds and grass along roads and two men are assigned to erecting, repairing and replacing road signs, he said.

Highways are lined by a machine sent here from the Division 11 office of the State Highway Department at New Philadelphia. Zellers said. The department has 54 pieces of equipment that range in size from small grass cutters to large cranes, he said. It operates 20 trucks, of which 19 are equipped with snow plows. Eighteen of the trucks have two-way radio.

The department has been complimented for its work in keeping highways passable this winter, Zellers said. He said the credit should go to the employees "who are called out in all kinds of weather and stay on the job until it is finished."

The club voted to endorse present officials for re-election. Councilman John Melvin, finance committee chairman, spoke briefly on the new city income tax. Also attending were Councilmen John Kelly, Donald Smith and Donald Hancock.

Women Of TV, Arise!

It looks as if the women of America will have to go on the march to protect their TV rights. The way things are shaping up for next fall, Dorothy Kilgallen may be the only female left on TV, a shattering thought by itself.

The so-called "pencil-in" schedules for next season's TV do not yet include Loretta Young, Dinah Shore, Barbara Stanwyck, June Allyson, Ann Sothern or even Betty Furness. "If the TV moguls, or whatever you call them, cash out all the women's shows, they are crazy," says TV's leading feminist, Loretta Young.

"I'd be careful if I were they. It would be very foolish to make TV predominantly male."

I COULDN'T agree with the glamorous Loretta more. The herds of bowlegged cowboys and buttoned-down private detectives populating TV today have pushed most of us to the point where Walt Disney's Minnie Mouse is beginning to look sexy.

In certain sections of the country, demonstrations are being organized to plump for the return to TV of Frances Ding Dong School Horwich and Fran (Kukla-Ollie) Allison.

"I know there are those in this industry who refer to me as 'Saint Loretta' and to my show as 'the drama history class,'" says Loretta, "but maybe they also can tell me how come I've been on TV for eight years."

Although she doesn't know where just yet, Loretta also plans to be on TV a ninth year—and with an hour-long show.

"FOR THE PAST couple of years I've thought about an hour show, because there are so many stories which can't be done in a half hour. We already have completed two one-hour films, and I'll do two more in Europe this summer."

Loretta has enough faith in her TV future to have put her own money into these hour films. The only thing she's worrying about is whether she should continue to come sashaying through the door the same way she has every Sunday since 1953.

NBC already has sold out Loretta's old Sunday night spot to Du Pont for a new hour series of drama and variety, so she may move to another network. Two or three sponsors are negotiating tentatively for her services next season, but the time scramble being what it is in TV, it also is possible that Loretta could be reduced to doing a series of six or eight specials.

"I CAN EITHER do my work or study law. I can't do both," says Loretta in reply to questions about the business side of her career. "My agent knows, of course, that I won't hook up with just any sponsor. I want to be free to do the kind of show I like."

"I quit reading my reviews when I was 17. A Jesuit priest told me then that a review, after all, was just the result of my work, but that I must be interested in the work itself. I feel the same way about TV ratings and don't need them either."

"Oh, of course I know 'Candid Camera' is opposite my show and giving us a bad time, but I like 'Candid Camera,' too, so why shouldn't other people?"

LORETTA'S forthrightness frequently floors the people she deals with. They are more used to the behind-the-scenes maneuver or the oblique approach.

She actually has the faith and confidence she exudes when she comes through that door on the TV show. And, incidentally, TV needs that entrance of Loretta's. It is one of the few really glamorous things left on a medium surfeited with "the truth about bad breath" and "real cigarettes."

Loretta also is the only Hollywood star (including Lassie) who has her full birthday (Jan. 6, 1913) printed plainly on her publicity biography.

If TV is going to leave Matt Dillon, Elliot Ness and Ed Sullivan on my screen, then I'm going to demand equal time for Loretta Young, Ann Sothern and Dinah Shore.

Travel smartly through the seasons with this matted set. Right in white or vivid colors.

Chessmen Enroll 5 New Members

Five new members were enrolled in the Fraternal Order of Chessmen at a meeting Tuesday night with Clarence Wilson of Newell, president.

They are Richard Adams, Ronald Bolton, Thomas Frederick and Dick Osborn of East Liverpool, and William Moore of Chester.

The group voted to raise the minimum membership age to 16, approved operating funds for March and was informed a news bulletin will be published monthly, starting in September.

Charles Martin, vice president, displayed an organization pennant obtained by the Board of Directors, bearing a knight symbol and the group's name and motto.

Chess problems were discussed. The next meeting is April 4. The board will meet Tuesday and March 21 with Wilson.

New Library Book Recounts Killing Of Pretty Boy Floyd

It has been 26 years since the East Liverpool region rocketed into national headlines with the local search and killing of Pretty Boy Floyd and capture of his buddy, Adam Richetti.

Paul I. Wellman in his new book, "A Dynasty of Western Outlaws," recounts the capture of the two here. Highlighted in the account in the new book at the Carnegie Public Library are the surprise of the Wellsville police in checking fingerprints of a captive to find that they had caught Floyd's associate unaware and the intense excitement which developed when Melvin Purvis and his FBI agents tracked down Pretty Boy at Clarkson and then Spruceville, where he was shot. Belle Starr, the James brothers and the Quantrell raiders are also described vividly in the new volume.

Rounding the trio of adventure books on the new shelf at the library are two lively volumes. "Seven Miles Down," by Jacques Piccard and Robert S. Dietz, tells of ocean study using the bathyscaphe. Their most successful dives have been made off the coast of Italy and after purchase by the U.S. Navy in the Pacific near Guam.

For the Civil War buff, Philip Van Doren Stern offers first-hand accounts of men and women who risked their lives in underground activities for the North and South. The title is "Secret Missions of the Civil War."

An important phase of American history is revealed in "Mailman U.S.A." The East Liverpool

Branch of the National Association of Letter Carriers has presented two copies to the library. Written by their president, William Doherty, it is a goldmine of amazing facts — that the average mailman walks 12 miles a day and the 125,000 carriers walk the equivalent of three round trips to the moon daily.

Boy Scout leaders seeking material on railroading for this month's project will find program ideas in Ernest F. Carter's "Unusual Locomotives." In addition to there having been a real train called "Puff-a-Billy," there was also an engine called a "Coffee Pot." The latter was used at a lime works in England.

Allied to the inevitable trend toward space travel are two new volumes. The first is of a practical nature which discusses "Medical Science and Space Travel," written by William A. Kinney, editor of the official Air Force Journal, "The Airman." The second is the product of a science fiction expert, Zenna Henderson. She writes of people arriving on earth from another planet — the title, "Pilgrimage, the Book of the People."

International flavor is found in new fiction with Mikhail Sholokov's "Harvest on the Don," the life of Cossacks on a communal farm in Russia, and Robert Roripaugh's "A Fever for Living." This is a love story set in contemporary Japan. Added complications are added in the conflict between enlisted man and officer over the love of a Japanese girl.

Biographies of two greats in the arts boast an appealing style and format — for the teen-ager, a life of Verdi by Gladys Malvern, "On Golden Wings," and "One Thousand and One Night Stands" by Ted Shawn, one of the famous exponents of modern ballet.

For light reading, the library recommends the book version of Rodgers and Hammerstein's current musical hit, "The Sound of Music." The high school student is guaranteed some laughs with the Latin version of "Winnie the Po."

Killed In Wreck

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—George E. Nicholson, 38, of near Lima, was killed Thursday when his car crashed broadside into a concrete bridge railing and his body was hurled into a creek. The car broke into four parts in the smashup on Buckeye Road south of here.

How the Chinese do it

Legend has it that Chinese doctors used to be paid only while their patients were healthy, got no fee during illness. It almost sounds reasonable. In fact, there are physicians today who specialize in keeping their patients healthy. Preventive medicine, it's called. All doctors practice it as much as they can. If you get regular checkups, your doctor has a chance to keep you from getting sick. Modern drugs play a large part in this practice, and that's where we pharmacists come in. But only you can make preventive medicine work—by getting into the habit of regular checkups. It's a very good idea.
